VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1923

PLAN ARRIVED AT FOR RUM SEARCH

Lord Curzon and Ambassador Harvey Reach Terms Satisfactory to Both Nations to Overcome Difficulties

SEALED LIQUORS MAY BE CARRIED TO PORT

No Specific Distance Named, But Suspected Vessels May Be Detained "Hour's Sailing Distance Off Shore"

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The rum-running issue between the American and British Governments, which Ambassador Harvey, in his conferences with British officials, repeatedly characterized as a dangerous menace to the existing good relations of the two countries, has been virtually settled. On the occasion of his formal farewell visit to the Foreign Office, the retiring Ambassador and Foreign Secretary Lord Curzon, gave final consideration to the terms of a draft treaty which it is believed will clear up the whole question.

The treaty is understood to meet the American desire for the right to search suspected rum-running vessels beyond the three-mile limit, but at the same time gives to Great Britain America's affirmation of the three-mile limit as governing British maritime rights generally. It would also allow British ships to carry liquor into American territorial waters under seal, thus enabling them to maintain a route to and after departing from American ports.

Common Before Conference

From the British side it only remains for the Imperial Conference of Premiers to place its imprimatur on a document embracing the points of the agreement. This was expected to be done today, but as the document had not been completed it was postponed until Friday, after which the draft will go to America for ratification by the United States.

OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF CANADA'S FUTURE

Hon. Thomas A. Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce, Advocates Unity of East and West

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31.—Drawing an optimistic picture of the greatness and potential wealth of Canada and enterprise of the people, Hon. Thomas A. Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce, declared to the Canadian Club today that the Dominion's progress in the past was nothing to what it was bound to be in the future.

Big as had been the increase in wheat shipments last year, he was confident that, with increased elevator capacity and the decrease in the freight rates, three times the quantity of wheat would be shipped this year.

After giving statistics of Canadian and British Columbia production in recent years, he declared that of all Canada, British Columbia had most to hope from the future. Speaking of the potentiality of the Oriental market, he alluded to the freight rates issue.

"You have this along with other questions calling for our study and consideration in the East, and we, too, have ours. Somewhere we must find a middle way. But you of British Columbia cannot be held back by the barriers of man's creating."

Division cannot persist," he said. "If there is understanding and confidence. Forces of the past have been strong enough to make us a unit. There was no East and West in the war, and surely the call for united construction can meet with equal response."

CRITICISM OF BRITISH POLICY IN PARIS

Le Temps Says Great Britain Endeavoring to Influence United States to Suit Purposes

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The semi-official newspaper, Le Temps, deals severely with the British foreign policy in an editorial today. Great Britain is described as seeking to induce the United States to enter upon a conversation which will inevitably lead to the conclusion that the inter-Allied debts ought to be reduced. The paper is trying to prove to the Americans on the eve of an electoral campaign, the newspaper declares, that it is to their interest to loan money to Europe without demanding the integral payment of the European debts.

This is the delicate task which England is pursuing methodically, the writer states.

France, he adds, has no reason to undertake similar action toward the United States; her doctrine is that Germany can pay, and even enrich herself doing so, provided it is done about in the right way.

Fined For Having Football Coupons

Vancouver, Oct. 31.—For having in his place of business football coupons for a competition held by Winnipeg and Moose Jaw newspapers, Nick Nokinian, confectioner, was fined $10 and costs in police court today.

Conference Favors Right of Dominions To Make Treaties

Recommendation Also Made to Adopt Plan to Enable United States to Search Ships for Liquor Within Twelve-Mile Limit, Provided Basic Principles Not Abandoned

NO FORMAL RESOLUTION ON INDIAN FRANCHISE PASSED

LONDON, Oct. 31.—In a two-hour session this afternoon, the Imperial Conference concluded its discussion on the status of natives of India in the Empire, adopted a number of committee reports, and passed a resolution of condolence to relatives of the late Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law. It is, however, understood that the most important of the reports adopted was that of the committee on treaties and international waters, which has been in session at intervals practically since the conference opened.

Says Insulin Might Be Made Exempt From Sales Tax

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—There is authority for the exemption of insulin from sales tax under the Special War Revenue Act, but such exemption must be made by the Governor-in-Council. This is the essence of the situation as explained today at the Department of Excise and Customs in answer to complaints by the Ontario government against the taxing of insulin for distribution. Insulin is not included in the list of exemptions of sales tax at present, it was stated, and the department had no option but to collect the tax.

ALBERTA DEBATES LIQUOR PROBLEM

PREPARING ELECTIONS FOR VOTE ON MONDAY

Campaign in Favor of Each of Four Solutions Is Now Being Waged Vigorously

EDMONTON, Oct. 31.—From scores of platforms throughout Alberta there are being proclaimed each evening of this week the general arguments for and against prohibition and its modification. The four principal proposals which face the electors in next Monday's referendum are:

The Social Service Council of Alberta is conducting the campaign on behalf of clause A, which would retain the present system unchanged and makes the claim on the platform and in its printed publicity that prohibition has been good for Alberta socially, morally and economically, and that the enactment of clause D would re-establish the bar in all sections.

Mr. Pooley Brings Up More Liquor Charges

Attorney-General's Firm Acted as Legal Representatives for Law Evaders, Esquimalt Member Declares—Accuses Oliver Government of Gross Neglect of Farmers

LAXITY and inefficiency in the enforcement of the Liquor Control Act has confronted British Columbia with the prospect of a wave of anti-moderation that may lead ultimately to bone-dry prohibition, Mr. R. H. Pooley, Conservative member for Esquimalt, warned in the Legislature yesterday afternoon, while speaking in the debate on the reply to the speech from the Throne.

Mr. W. J. Bowser Will Speak on Debate Today

MR. W. J. BOWSER, leader of the opposition, will speak on the address in the Legislature this afternoon. Moving the adjournment of the debate yesterday afternoon, he will be the first speaker on the resumption of the debate today. There is a general rumor about the corridors that the opposition leader's speech will not lack in interest.

FASCISTI HONOR THIRD ANNIVERSARY

Premier Mussolini and Several Cabinet Ministers Took Part in Celebration of the Event

ROME, Oct. 31.—The Italian Fascisti and their supporters united today for the celebration of the first anniversary of their rise to power. It was a year ago today that the Fascist army, after taking over other large cities, entered the capital and paved the way for the Mussolini Government. The feature was a parade of the Fascist commandants who took part in the march on Rome. Overhead cruised an escadrille of dirigible balloons and 300 airplanes. Premier Mussolini took his place at the head of the procession, supported by several cabinet ministers.

Features of Report

The main features of its report are:—Recognition of the right of a Dominion to conclude a treaty alone when the interests of the whole Empire or of any other Dominion are not affected.

Recommendation of such means as without abandoning the basic principle of the three-mile limit, will enable United States authorities under defined conditions to search British ships for liquor within a 12-mile limit of the American coast.

Indian Question

The conference discussed the question of Indians from all angles, but according to the report did not pass any formal resolutions.

Among representatives of various dominions there was apparently a general acceptance of views that a resolution of the Premier's conference imposed no obligations on the parts of the dominions to grant the franchise to Indians, nor, as has been rumored, was any intention expressed of going beyond the scope of the 1921 resolution.

Fearful of Opposition

With the exception of South Africa it is understood the various Dominion representatives raised no serious objection to the proposal that committees of enquiry be appointed which was made by the representatives from India, although in some quarters the point was raised that they might tend to stir up opposition and thus defeat their own purpose. The text of the discussion is expected to be published tomorrow.

The principal business still is that of immigration and preferential tariffs.

A committee of the economic conference is now at work in an endeavor to devise a plan whereby Empire settlement would be stimulated and in regard to preference, the conference is still awaiting any further proposals from the British government. In any event, with the death of former Premier Bonar Law and the preoccupation of British Ministers with the domestic political situation, it is unlikely that the subject of preference will be reached before Thursday. But the conference expects to conclude its labors by the end of next week.

THRILLING RESCUES IN WINNIPEG FIRE

Hammond Block Quickly Mass of Flames—Dozen People Escaped After Seemingly Cut Off

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—In a burst of flame and smoke, which within fifteen minutes converted it into a roaring furnace, the Hammond building, one of Winnipeg's premier office structures, ended its career this morning. Only one person, Fireman R. J. Shearer, was seriously injured. He received dangerous internal burns in a fall down a fire escape and may die. A dozen men and women, some of whom seemed hopelessly trapped in the blazing building, escaped with minor cuts and burns.

The stage was set for tragedy. Inflammable contents, an elevator shaft which acted as a fuse for the leaping flames, a score of men and women cut off from the fire escapes by an advancing barrier of smoke and fire—all these elements combined to make death seem an inevitable accompaniment of the blaze. But in a series of thrilling rescues where every second counted, the fire department succeeded in getting out the last man a minute before the building became a huge torch.

The fire damage to the building and its contents is estimated at $250,000. The fire lasted for only two hours.

ACCUSED ACQUITTED OF SELLING DRUGS

Verdict Reached by Mixed Jury in Vancouver Case—Mr. Justice Gregory Advises Man

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31.—British Columbia's second mixed jury brought in another verdict of "not guilty" tonight, when a jury of seven men and five women acquitted Gustav Eckhardt of charges of selling drugs.

"Some people will still think that you are connected with this drug affair," said Mr. Justice Gregory in dismissing the prisoner. "You seem to be familiar with the thing. For goodness sake, leave it alone, for the sake of society."

MOVE TO SUCCOR GERMAN CHILDREN

Relief for Winter Will Be Sought in America for Two Million Said to Be in Need

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Leading America in an endeavor to succor a distressed people, Major General Henry T. Allen, who commanded the U.S. army of occupation in Germany, today announced a nation-wide drive to carry relief to at least 2,000,000 children in Germany during the coming winter.

Contributions to finance the undertaking will be solicited by the American committee for relief of German children, of which General Allen is chairman. More than 100 prominent persons have accepted places on the national committee.

REFUSES BAIL TO LABOR LEADER

HALIFAX, Oct. 31.—Chief Justice Harris today refused bail to James B. MacLachlan, former secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, in Nova Scotia, and labor leader, after MacLachlan had been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Mr. Justice Mellich, MacLachlan was convicted in the court of seditious libel.

WILL BE BURIED IN THE ABBEY

Public Funeral Service Will Be Attended by Diplomats, Officials and Representative Persons and Friends

DOMINION MINISTERS ARE TO HAVE PLACES

Dean of Westminster and Probably Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishop of London Will Officiate

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Former Premier Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law will be laid to rest at Westminster Abbey next Monday amid the solemn splendor of a public funeral service, which will be attended by a gathering of friends of all political shades, government officials and diplomats.

The presence of all the Dominion Prime Ministers in London will make the gathering representative of the whole Empire, while Premier Baldwin, at the head of a large group of ministers and former ministers, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of London, and diplomats of all nations will be in their places to represent the political, religious and diplomatic circles of life with which the late Premier came into contact. Representatives of the King and Queen and other royalties will be among the prominent personages there to give requiem honors.

Many Would Attend

Seats for some 2,000 persons will be arranged, but they will provide for but a fraction of those requesting admission, and the public will be allowed only a small number of tickets, as the group of friends will command many hundreds.

The service will start at noon, when the coffin will be received by some minor canons at the side door of the Abbey and escorted to a place before the altar.

The Dean of Westminster, and probably the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of London, will officiate.

Burial in the Abbey

Only a few words will be spoken by the Dean after the service. Then the coffin will be carried, followed by a group of English and distinguished personages, to a spot in the Abbey yet to be designated, where the body will be laid in its final honored resting place.

The hymn to be sung at the service will be chosen by Mr. Bonar Law's family from among his favorites, and will be rendered by the choir of the Abbey and the Chapel Royal of St. James Palace.

BRANCH RAILWAY TO POWER LOCATION

C.P.R. Has Location to Surprise Rapids. It Is Reported, and Will Begin Early Construction

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31.—A location for twenty-five miles of construction railway from the Canadian Pacific main line to Surprise Rapids on the Columbia River, near Baxevanmouth, has just been completed, according to advices received in Vancouver.

Surprise Rapids has been mentioned as the probable site of a huge dam and power house in the event of the Canadian Pacific going ahead with its projected electrification of the mountain division.

The advices state that work on the twenty-five miles of construction railway was already surveyed will commence next Spring. Work on the construction of a dam more than 100 feet high will be undertaken as soon as the railway line has been laid, it is said.

Manitoba Will Supply Insulin

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Plans were made by the Manitoba Board of Health today for distribution of insulin for the treatment of diabetes in the Province. Insulin will be supplied to medical men certified by the Manitoba Insulin Commission, and will be given free to patients unable to pay. Those in a position to pay will get the insulin at cost price.

Socialist Demands On Coalition Party

Believed Moderate Leaders Seek to Appease Clamors of Radical Section of German Red Element Which Seeks Creation of Crisis—Strong Exception Taken to Stand of Bavaria

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—After a party caucus lasting seven hours, the United Socialists' Reichstag delegation tonight drafted a programme of demands, upon which it makes contingent its further membership in the present coalition government. While the nature of its communication to Chancellor Stresemann suggests a twenty-four-hour ultimatum, the Reichstag leaders believe that its tenure and contents are wholly dictated by the desire of the party's moderate leaders to appease its clamorous radical wing, which has been endeavoring to stampede the party into defection from the coalition.

To Encourage Young Men In Research Work

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Dr. J. G. Banning, discoverer of insulin, announced today at the Canadian Club that through the efforts of J. W. Rogers and Edward I. Snook, Toronto, plans were already under way to establish a scientific research fund for the encouragement of young men. It is proposed under the scheme to raise $100,000 for the purpose, and it will be national in its scope. The resources of the fund will be available to any man, regardless of degree or connections, and no committee will be named later shall decide whether the idea submitted is worthy of research. If the decision is favorable the idea will be carried to completion.

Great Britain Cannot Recognize Rhineland Republic as Independent State Because Disintegration of Country Would Leave No Central Power Responsible Under Treaty of Versailles

PROPOSE JOINT NOTE TO UNITED STATES

France Remarks Upon Lack of Difference in Views and Points Out That With Respect to Separatist Movement Principle Was Followed of Letting Populations Act According to Their Own Will

LONDON, Oct. 31.—By notes delivered to the French and Belgian governments today the British government puts formally the announcement made recently by Premier Baldwin that the government cannot view with equanimity the creation of separate states in Germany or the dismemberment of that country. The notes declare that Great Britain cannot recognize as independent the Rhineland republic, de facto or de jure, because such a republic is contrary to the Versailles treaty.

Treaty Question

British action in this respect is inspired in the first place by the realization that the disintegration of Germany would leave no central government which could be held responsible under the Versailles Treaty, and in the second place, by the fact that the recognition of the Rhineland Republic would cause endless embarrasment to the British Government, in the Cologne district, where the British troops might become involved in the delicate task of keeping order among the contending German factions.

Must Avoid Complications

While British troops are kept in the Rhineland many voices here recently have advocated their withdrawal. The Government is obliged to exercise every care to avoid embarrassing complications. It is argued in London that it might happen that the inhabitants of the Cologne district would prefer to remain loyal to the Reich, even if a Rhineland Republic were established, and since much evidence has been forthcoming to prove that the French Government favors the creation of such a republic, this would bring the British into conflict with France at a time when in view of the coming in of the United States to another reparations conference, it is more than ever necessary that nothing should happen to disturb the already somewhat strained relations between Great Britain and France.

French Views

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The British Government, through its Ambassador, the Marquis of Crewe, has sent two communications to the French Foreign Office, which were received there in happy accord with the conciliatory spirit shown by France in recent intercourse between the two countries. The first note drew the French Foreign Office's attention to the juridical consequences which might be entailed by the separation of Germany from certain provinces, in that such provinces were not signatories of the Treaty of Versailles and so would not directly have assumed obligations laid upon the Reich by this treaty.

Denial of Criticism

It has been reported that the note contained various statements including criticism of certain measures taken by the French and Belgians in the zones of occupation, but it can be said that the note is limited to the above declaration based on the Treaty of Versailles. An identical communication was made to the Belgian Government.

To Commemorate Armistice Day

All citizens will have in view the Armistice period, which will be celebrated this year on November 12. They will also remember the thankfulness with which Canada and the Empire learned and celebrated the Armistice on November 11, 1918—only five years ago.

The memorial hall to be held at the Armistice on Monday evening, November 12, will provide a most welcome expression for gratitude, and at the same time, assist towards the erection of a permanent memorial in the city to those of the race who gave their lives in the course of the Great War.

REPRIEVE MAY BE GRANTED ESKIMOS

Cabinet Will Consider Subject at Friday's Sitting—Appointment to Ex-Exchequer Court Expected

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The Cabinet will meet for the first time this week on Friday. It is understood that one of the matters which will occupy the attention of the ministers is the case of the two Eskimos who, until the Governor-in-Council intervenes, are executed on December 7 next.

The widespread demand for a stay of execution evidenced by the circulation of a petition to the Minister of Justice has resulted in a decision to reconsider the case, and it is now considered quite possible that a reprieve will be granted.

The appointment of Hon. A. K. Maclean to the vacancy in the Exchequer Court is expected shortly, and may be made at this meeting.

MIGHT COME BACK BUT MUST BEHAVE

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—With regard to rumors that the former German Crown Prince had requested permission from the Dutch authorities to return to Germany, it was learned here today that no formal request to this effect has been made to the Berlin government. Informal inquiries elicited the fact that the German Government is not unwilling to permit the former Crown Prince to come back to Germany, subject to the strict conditions that he live quietly on his estate in Silesia.

EXONERATION OF REV. DR. RIDDELL

PRINCIPAL OF WESLEY COLLEGE IS FIRED OF CHARGES

Finding of Court of Inquiry Is That He Did Not Act in Disobedience of Methodist Discipline

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Dr. J. H. Riddell, principal of Wesley College, of Winnipeg, was exonerated from the charges of "disobedience to discipline of the Methodist Church," in a report issued by the special church court today. The charges were instituted by Professor W. G. Smith, formerly vice-principal of the college.

The placing of the charges against Dr. Riddell was the outcome of the dismissal from the faculty of the college, and the subsequent court case launched by Professor Smith, a former member of the faculty, of the University of Toronto.

Prof. Smith's Charges
Professor Smith was vice-principal of the college for 16 months, when on July 5, 1922, he was dismissed for alleged insubordination. He sued the institution for breach of contract and wrongful dismissal, placing the damages at $30,000, but the claim was disallowed by the Manitoba Court of King's Bench.

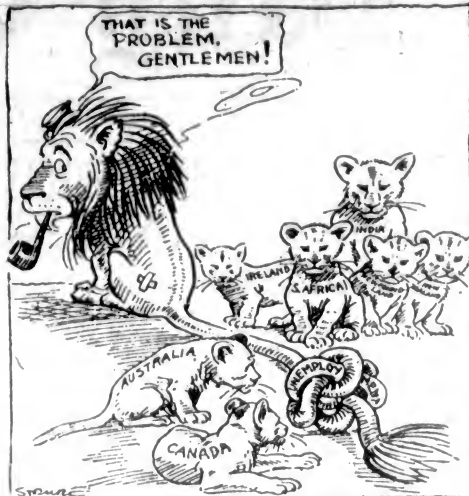

Shortly after the court's decision, Professor Smith laid seven specific charges with Rev. Samuel Wilkinson, president of the Manitoba Methodist Conference, against Dr. Riddell, alleging offences "against the law of God and the discipline of the Methodist Church," prevarication and misrepresentation. The principal charge was that Riddell stated during examination for discovery that he had made no definite offer to Professor Smith when he was being engaged in Toronto, that no terms had been discussed and no salary mentioned. This statement was declared to have been false by Professor Smith.

The court which reported its findings to Rev. Mr. Wilkinson today was convened on October 16, under the chairmanship of Rev. J. A. Doyle, and all sessions were held in camera.

NEW ENTERPRISES POSSIBLE IN CANADA

Report of Bureau at Ottawa Deals With Preparation of Non-Metallic Minerals for Use

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The possibility of establishing plants in Canada to produce the many varieties of finely ground non-metallic minerals used in Canadian industries is the subject of a comprehensive report prepared in the Mining, Metallurgical and Chemical Branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Heretofore, though extensive deposits of the crude material are known to exist in Canada, and though these deposits are in certain cases being worked, the bulk of the supply has been derived from imports. It has been suggested that it is feasible to substitute Canadian products for certain of these imports, and it is the purpose of the report now described to present the data required for computing the probable extent of the

REUTERS WILL MOVE ITS LONDON OFFICE

Abandons Historic Premises in Old Jewry in Favor of New Quarters on Embankment

LONDON, Oct. 20.—While telegraphy annihilates space, news agencies draw closer the peoples of the world, and in this enterprise Reuters have a foremost place. An important event in the history of this old established organization is shortly to happen; it is removing from the editorial quarters which it has occupied in London for more than half a century. While the name "Reuters" is familiar to every newspaper reader and is a household word in many parts of the British Empire, probably few people, even in the metropolis, could state the location of the famous news agency.

Like many other institutions of international repute, the offices are situated in one of the narrow thoroughfares of the city, not far from the Bank of England and the Mansion House. They have a modest exterior. No imposing feature adorns the facade of the premises which in days when there were no motor cars to carry merchant princes and financial magnates to suburban homes, were dwelling houses and offices.

A stranger passing through Old Jewry and seeing the name "Reuters" might be surprised by the unpretentious appearance of what has been described as the greatest clearing house in the world for the world's news. But there is the ever open door through which messages pass through the day and night almost unattended by a police officer who guards the entrance to a police station near by.

What a striking contrast is the quietude without to the ever restless spirit of modern journalism enterprise within! Here is the nerve centre of a system which has its ramifications throughout the world. Sentinels to events happening in the remote parts of the earth, departments are ever "listening in" and "broadcasting" to the world. Be it a catastrophe in the Far East, an upheaval in the West, an exploit in the Polar regions or the fall of a Ministry, it is quickly known in Old Jewry. The world holds no secrets from Reuters.

It is a house of mystery, a wonderful institution whose organization, encompassing the globe, is one of the triumphs of modern journalism. The founder, Julius Reuter, started with a staff consisting of one office boy in the Royal Exchange Building. The story of its expansion in Old Jewry covers half a century. During that time the interior of the offices has undergone many changes to meet new and expanding services of news, until now it is a labyrinth of rooms, staircases and passages where, combined with a large staff, are devices resulting from scientific and mechanical discoveries for facilitating rapid communication. How Reuters have succeeded in great enterprises in so small a space is one of the mysteries of the organization.

But now a space, pulsating with events, has given its challenge, and it is recognized that the premises in Old Jewry are no longer adequate for the operations of the agency. The members of the editorial staff are risking their departure with mixed feelings, to which expression was given recently when, at an hour when messages ceased to chase each other in the air and under the sea, they met in a London hotel to celebrate the change. There is some attachment to the old place where have been not one, but many crowded hours of "glorious life," when Reuters have been first with the news and given its "scissors" to the world. But "the times are perpetually substitute market which thus be developed.

With the exception of sulphur in the native state, whitening and some special grades of clay, Canada possesses important deposits of almost all the non-metallics most commonly used in industries. The minerals, as well as the United States, are found in the ground or prepared form are: Actinolite, barytes, calcite, whiting, dolomite, corundum, feldspar, fluorapatite, gypsum, lime, magnesite and magnesia, mica, iron, oxides, quartz or silica, including siliceous flint, tripoli and talc. Of these, gypsum and magnesite are produced in considerable quantities in Canada, and otherwise prepared in Canada, and larger sizes to consumers both in Canada and abroad. Talc is ground and produced in several marketable grades, which are shipped to consumers throughout Ontario and Quebec, as well as the United States. Lime is mainly used as a crude quicklime in the building trades, pulp manufacturing, sugar and glass-making industries and a limited amount is used as lime-flour. Actinolite, quartz, feldspar and mica are now being prepared to a limited extent in Canada.

Copies of the complete report may be had by those interested on application to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics at Ottawa.

GETS TWO YEARS FOR SEDITIONOUS LIBEL

Former Secretary of United Mine Workers at Sydney, C.B., Is Sentenced to Penitentiary

HALIFAX, Oct. 31.—Two years in Dorchester penitentiary was the sentence pronounced this morning on James B. MacLachlan, former secretary of the United Mine Workers, District 25, convicted in the Supreme Court on a charge of seditious libel.

Mr. MacLachlan, while secretary of District 25, United Mine Workers, and during the coal and steel strike in Cape Breton last July and August, was arrested on orders of the Attorney-General's Department on a charge of spreading false reports and his colleague, Daniel Livingston, president of the organization, was also arrested charged jointly with MacLachlan with seditious libel. The charges arose out of a letter circulated among the locals of the union, and a copy of which was sent to the head of the Empire Steel Corporation at Sydney, the letter setting forth alleged atrocities committed by the Provincial police in carrying out their duties in Sydney, and encouraging the strikers. After considerable legal action had been taken, the two labor leaders were arrested, and MacLachlan was tried and convicted in the Supreme Court, which found him guilty of seditious libel in connection with the letter. Livingston's case has not yet come to trial, and he is at liberty on bail.

PRESS PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE PREMIER

New York Newspapers Play Compliment to Honesty and Sterling Character of Deceased

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The newspapers pay outstanding tribute to the memory of Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, former British premier, who died yesterday.

The Tribune says he was justly "lauded as a high-minded and patriotic political leader, not a talker, pursuing unswervingly what he considered to be his duty, fair, honorable and honest as the daylight."

It says he succeeded in politics because he disarmed distrust and created confidence and that he won his way by dint of character.

The World, after paying tribute to his character and achievements, says he is remembered affectionately by supporters and opponents, "because throughout his political life he played the game with fairness, unselfishness, integrity and candor."

The Herald says Mr. Bonar Law was "stable, cautious, trustworthy and possessed of an integrity which no political excitement or temptation took. Bonar Law was a public servant of a sort which we have not yet produced in large numbers in America."

Insurgent Condemned By Greek Court-Martial

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A Greek court-martial at Salonica has condemned to death Major Sakalariou, who took a leading part in the recent military insurrection, says a Central News dispatch from Athens.

The arrest of General Metaxas, reported to have been the chief of the rebels, is stated to be imminent.

MAYOR SUGGESTS SAANICH PAY UP

WOULD OPPOSE REVISION OF SEWER AGREEMENT

Says Unwise for Ratepayers to Turn Down By-Law in Hope of the City Altering Terms

So far as he is concerned, no proposal to amend the Northwest Sewer agreement entered into between the city and Saanich will be entertained, Mayor Reginald Hayward stated yesterday.

"While I am not conversant with the details of the agreement," explained his worship, "I take into account the fact that the councils of both Victoria and Saanich consented to it and both parties entered into it in good faith. As I am not sufficiently acquainted with the matter, I would not care to say anything as to the wisdom of the agreement, but I do claim that there is no reason for Victoria to consent to any change being made in it."

"Under the agreement Saanich must place a by-law before the ratepayers each year until such a measure authorizing the payment of the sewer debt is passed. I cannot see that Saanich would be well advised to turn down the by-law in the hope that the city will alter its terms after it is against any revision. It would not be wise for agreements to be treated in that fashion. As for permitting the payment of the capital sum and cancelling the interest, I wish to point out that the city had to borrow the money to make the Northwest Sewer larger for the use of Saanich and had to pay interest upon it, and we are justified in asking interest on the debt. Undoubtedly Saanich will eventually require the Northwest Sewer, and Victoria will not permit the municipality to use it until the debt is cleared off."

VERDICT OF SUICIDE RETURNED BY JURY

Edmonton Man Found Dead in Local Hotel Had Been Worried About Business and in Poor Health

John C. Wilson, 41, of Edmonton, who was found dead in his room at a local hotel last Monday evening, committed suicide while in a state of mental depression, according to the verdict rendered yesterday by the inquest jury empaneled by Coroner E. C. Hart.

The evidence showed that the late Mr. Wilson was a plumbing and hardware supply merchant, of Edmonton. He came to the Coast for his health about six weeks ago, and was advised to undergo treatment for nervous trouble at Resthaven Sanitarium, to which place he went from Vancouver. He registered at one of the city hotels last Saturday, and was last known to be alive when Mr. Thomas R. Griffith, a friend, who came from Edmonton with him, phoned to him at 11 o'clock last Monday morning.

Chief of Police John Fry described how he was called to the hotel on Monday evening, after the hotel servant had broken into the room and discovered the tragedy. Mr. Wilson was dead, sitting in a chair, an automatic pistol still gripped in his right hand, a bullet wound through his temples. The pistol was one which Chief Fry had given Mr. Wilson permission to purchase only that morning, on the representation that he was going to the Yukon. It appeared that no one had heard the pistol shot. The death must have been instant, and occurred some time between 11 o'clock in the morning and 8 o'clock at night.

Mr. Griffith testified that his friend had been in poor health for some time. Mr. Wilson had a form of nervous trouble, and was worried about his business affairs. He seemed quite normal to Chief Fry, however, in the opinion of that witness. He was unmarried, and his relatives were somewhere in Eastern Canada. The jury returned a verdict, as stated. The inquest was held in the office of the H.C. Funeral Company.

BUILDING FIGURES LESS THAN YEAR AGO

Last Month Shows Increase Over September, But Total for Ten Months Still Behind 1922

The building permit figures for this year are now a little over $11,000 behind those for the first ten months of 1922, figures issued at the City Hall yesterday show. Up to last night the total was $889,873 for 337 permits, as compared with $901,198 for 402 permits at the end of October last year.

These amounts are more favorable to 1923 than were those issued at the end of September, for in October 31 permits, totalling $24,417, were issued, as compared with 46 permits, totalling $57,245, in the same month a year ago.

The October figures were augmented by the taking out of a $45,000 permit for the Memorial Hall of Christ Church Cathedral, and also a $15,000 permit for repairs to the liquor warehouse owned by Fisher & Leiser, which suffered damage not long ago in a fire.

THE PICKFORDS FILE LABEL SUIT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Mr. Douglas Fairbanks, motion picture actor, and his wife, Mary Pickford, announced tonight that they had wired instructions to their attorneys in New York to file a label suit against an eastern film magazine, which recently printed a report that "America's sweetheart" and her famous husband had quarrelled over another woman.

Evelyn Brent, formerly leading lady in Fairbanks' company, whose name was said to have been involved in the alleged libelous article, will join Miss Pickford and Mr. Fairbanks in the label suit, according to her husband, B. P. Fineman.

DAWSON MINER CRUSHED

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Oct. 31.—J. C. Calderhead, former manager of the Floradora Mine in the early days of Dawson, was killed Monday when a large piece of machinery fell on him at his coal mines near Healy, eighty miles south of here, according to a report received here today. No details of the accident are given.

Prince of Wales Has Lost Article Sent Back With Love and Kisses

LONDON, Oct. 31.—"Love and kisses from Aberystwith" were the words on a huge tablet attached to the Prince of Wales' umbrella which has disappeared during His Royal Highness' tour in Wales and which was returned to him yesterday.

Aberystwith is one of the Welsh places of interest visited by the Prince during his four days' tour. Throughout the four days his reception has been boisterous. Many of the people have made long journeys from the Welsh hills to see the Prince. The Prince looks very tired.

WILL COMMEMORATE BLOCKING OF PORT

British Campaigners to Mark Anniversary of Zeebrugge at Dinner in Chamber of Commerce

The anniversary of the Blocking of Zeebrugge Harbor will be commemorated this evening by the British Campaigners' Association at its annual dinner, which will take place in the Chamber of Commerce, Arcade Building, at 8 o'clock. The speaker will be Captain T. L. Thorpe-Douglas, R.N. Colonel C. Peck, V.C., D.S.O., president of the organization, whose brilliant war record won him renown, will preside and officiate as toastmaster.

Members of the British Campaigners' Association have been looking forward to tonight's function with eager anticipation, and the great interest taken in the function may be measured by the rapidly with which the tickets have been disposed of. These latter may be secured upon application to the secretary, Mr. W. J. Edwards, 625 L.

An interesting feature will be the address to be delivered by Captain Thorpe-Douglas, upon Admiral Try-Whitt's feat, which was one of the most memorable of the navy during the Great War. A large map of the mole at Zeebrugge and surrounding defences which will be hung in a prominent position and illuminated with a spot light, will enable his auditors to follow the speaker's description of the action.

By kind permission of the Senior Naval Officer and the G.O.C. Military District No. 11, uniform may be worn by all ranks who so desire at tonight's dinner. Otherwise, dress will be informal. Seats may be reserved by telephoning Secretary Edwards.

The board will sit in Edmonton November 26; in Victoria, November 28; Vancouver, November 30; Nelson, December 2; Calgary, December 6; Saskatoon, December 7; Regina, December 8; and Winnipeg, December 10.

GIVES HINT AS TO GOVERNMENT'S POLICY

Postmaster-General Expressed Opinion That Elevator Might Vote on National Policy Soon

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Postmaster-General, told an audience at Budegry, last night, that they might have an opportunity of expressing an opinion on the national policy before many months. Great Britain must have a tariff to protect her home markets, he said, but Premier Baldwin's policy did not mean taxing meat or bread or other necessities. Lord president of the Council and deputy leader of the House of Lords, on the other hand, speaking last night declared that an election was unthinkable in the present condition of foreign markets.

AUTO DRIVER GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Lloyd W. Conklin, Winnipeg Youth, Convicted by Jury—Remanded for Sentence Later

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Lloyd W. Conklin, Winnipeg youth, was found guilty by jury here yesterday of manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Rose Weller, who was struck and fatally injured by an automobile driven by Conklin last summer. The jury made a strong recommendation for mercy. Conklin was remanded for sentence.

DR. FELLISCH TAKES OFFICE IN SAXONY

As Premier He Has Formed Cabinet Composed Entirely of Socialists—Relieves Political Tension

DRESDEN, Oct. 31.—The Saxon Diet early today elected Dr. A. Fellisch as Premier by a vote of 46 to 18. After the election the House adjourned until November 6.

Dr. Fellisch, a Socialist, was Minister of Economics before the recently deposed Socialist-Communist government was established.

The cabinet is composed entirely of Socialists, but the Democrats undertook to support it. The following ministers were named by Dr. Fellisch: Herr Lieke, Interior; Herr Held, Finance; Herr Graupe, Labor; Herr Neu, Justice; Herr Fleisner, Education.

PREFERENCE QUESTION COMES UP NEXT WEEK

British Campaign Speeches Are Being Watched by Delegates to Ascertain Government Views

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Developments in the British political campaign speeches are being closely followed by the overseas representatives with a view to further elucidation of the fiscal policy of the Baldwin government, but what further British preference proposals, if any, are to be submitted to the conference remain unstated.

The conference discussion on preference will not now take place until next week, which is expected to be the final week of the conference. Sir Lamer Gouin, Canadian Minister of Justice, will go to Paris tomorrow to open the Canadian Traveling Exhibition in the French capital.

SALES TAX TO BE PAID ON INSULIN

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—Notice has been received by the Ontario government from the administration in Ottawa that insulin, the recently-discovered treatment for diabetes, will not be exempted from the special levies of the Federal authorities, and that it will have to pay a sales tax in common with other commodities.

Premier Ferguson, in a statement, said that the Ontario government would lodge a strong protest against the imposition.

PREMIER NAMES NEW COMMITTEES

PREPARES TO HEAR "SEARCHLIGHT" WITNESSES

Mr. J. W. deB. Farris Expected to Head Public Accounts Body—Mr. Bowser to Speak Today

Mr. W. J. Bowser, K.C., leader of the Opposition, adjourned the debate in the Legislature yesterday afternoon and he will have the floor when the House sits this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Standing committees were announced in the Legislature yesterday afternoon by Premier Oliver and the beginning of next week will probably see these bodies in action. Although it is generally understood that the first member named on each committee is the respective chairman.

Mr. J. W. deB. Farris, former Attorney-General, will likely occupy the chair of the Public Accounts Committee. This move is understood to have been decided upon by the Government in view of the possibility of the examination of certain witnesses on P.G.E. Railway and Liquor Control Board matters.

Mr. Edward J. Rowster, whose depositions in the current issue of the "Searchlight," the organ of the new Provincial party, have caused quite a stir in the Parliament Buildings, is understood to be slated to appear before the Public Accounts Committee at the inauguration of the Government.

The following are the committees: Public Accounts—Messrs. Farris, I. A. Mackenzie, K. C. MacDonald, Kergin, Yorston, Bowser, Pooley, Jones, Menzies and W. A. McKenzie.

Private Bills and Standing Orders—Messrs. Jackson, Clearhue, Farris, Anderson, Pearson, Hinchliffe and Burde.

Railways—Messrs. Anderson, Farris, Jackson, Smith, Messrs. Esling, A. McDonald and Guthrie.

Mining—Messrs. Yorston, Buckham, Kergin, Campbell, Henneghan, Perry, Wallinger, Schofield, Uphill, Guthrie, Menzies and Hunter.

Agriculture—K. C. MacDonald, Yorston, Anderson, Patterson, Henneghan, later, Catherwood, Duncan and Menzies.

Municipal—Messrs. Whiteside, Ramsay, Perry, Mrs. Smith, Messrs. Campbell, Schofield, W. A. McKenzie, McEwen, Hancox, Jones and Farris.

The legal members of the Legislature were yesterday appointed a committee to go into the revision of the statutes, in making the revision, the committee will be assisted by the Hon. Mr. Manion, Attorney-General, explained that the work had been in progress during the past year and a half. He was of the opinion that the work was in such good shape that the committee would not be compelled to spend a great deal of time looking over such work.

LITIGATION INVOLVES RIGHTS IN INVENTION

Promoter Sues Local Man for Share of Profits From Caulfield Stocker, to Be Marketed Here

The Caulfield stocker, the invention of Mr. Norman Howard Caulfield, of 2711 Fernwood Road, an invention which is claimed to offer a revolution in the operations of harvesting by dispensing with the labor of human stockers following the binder, was the bone of contention in the Supreme Court yesterday, when trial of the suit of Major James C. Watson, of Oak Bay, against Mr. Caulfield, came on before Mr. Justice Murphy.

Major Watson asks the court for a declaration that he is entitled to an interest in the profits that may arise from the exploitation of the invention; to a share in all patents issued; and that he is a partner of the defendant in the utilization of the invention.

The plaintiff testified that he had a verbal agreement with the inventor by which he was to receive 5 per cent of the profits of the enterprise, in return for his efforts to promote the Caulfield Stocker Company, a corporation registered in British Columbia, with offices in the Central Building, Victoria, and with a capitalization of $250,000.

Major Watson said that among the capitalists he endeavored to enlist in support of the venture were the Messrs. Harris Implement Company and Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr. There had been a demonstration of the model of the stocker in the Belmont Building, and a practical object lesson in the actual working of the machine itself at the Hudson's Bay Farm. All the practical farmers, implement makers and others who had seen the tests were impressed with the value of the invention.

The defendant had refused certain proposals to put the machine on the market, said Major Watson, and had declined to have further business relations with him. The plaintiff considered that the verbal agreement alleged by him was binding in law.

The case of the defendant will be put in evidence today. Mr. Caulfield denies that Major Watson is entitled to an interest in his invention.

Mr. H. A. Maclean, K.C., is appearing for the plaintiff; and Mr. A. M. Whiteside for the defendant.

ALL SAINTS' SERVICE

Combined Choirs of Anglican Churches Will Participate at St. John's This Evening

The combined choirs of the Anglican churches in Victoria will take part in the choral service to be held in St. John's Church this evening at 8 o'clock. The service is under the auspices of the Anglican Choral Union of Victoria, of which the Right Rev. Bishop Schofield is president.

The choirs have been practicing for several weeks under the direction of Mr. J. G. Burnett and Mr. Harold Davis. The music to be given includes the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis by Christopher Wren; the anthem, "The Sun Shall Be"; by Woodward; the feast responses and the All Saints' day hymns.

The service will be conducted by Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, the rector of St. John's, and all the city clergy will take part, the preacher for the occasion being Rev. J. R. Gorton, of Vancouver. All Anglicans and the general public are invited to attend. A celebration of the holy communion will be held on the morning of All Saints' Day at 10:30 o'clock.

OBITUARIES

McMILLAN—There passed away yesterday at the Royal Jubilee Hospital Grace McMillan. The late Mrs. McMillan was a native of Esquimalt, aged 21 years. The remains are resting at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1425 Quadra Street, from where the funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. C. M. Tate will conduct the service, and the remains will be laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery.

GRAY—Services over the remains of Mr. Andrew Gray was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 at his late residence by the Rev. Dr. Gray. There was a large attendance of friends and many beautiful floral designs covered the casket and hearse. The following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. A. Campbell, Dr. G. L. Milne, D. Miller, J. A. Sayward, H. J. Scott and J. A. Turner. The remains were laid to rest in Ross Bay cemetery.

WILSON—The funeral of Mr. George Wilson, who passed away in Vancouver last Monday, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Sands Funeral Chapel, Rev. W. J. Sipprell will officiate and interment will be made in the family plot at Ross Bay cemetery. The late Mr. Wilson was born in England in 1844 and had been a resident of this city for the past eighteen years. He is survived by two sons, five daughters, a mother, three brothers and two sisters.

BRETHOUR—The funeral of Mr. John Brethour will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his home, Rev. T. G. Hughes will officiate and interment will be made in Brethour's private cemetery. The late Mr. Brethour was born in Uxbridge, Ontario, on July 8, 1847, and has been a resident of Sidney for the past fifty years. He was a member of St. Michael's L.O.L., No. 1597, under whose auspices the funeral is arranged. Flowers may be left with the Sands Funeral Company.

CANNOT LEGALLY GRANT RESPITE

IMPOSSIBLE TO PREVENT PENALTY ADDITION TO TAXES
Council Members Make Last-Minute Efforts to Find Way of Giving Relief

Answering appeals from taxpayers, members of the city council sought yesterday for means to advance the date on which the eight per cent penalty surcharge is placed on unpaid taxes, but discovered that such a step was legally impossible. Hence the penalty addition goes on unpaid taxes today.

Taxpayers have approached aldermen with a request that they be given a longer time in which to meet their current tax debts this year before being penalized. The date has been extended in the past, and yesterday aldermen Fargher and Kerr conferred with City Solicitor Pringle to ascertain if this could be done this year.

Mr. Pringle informed the aldermen that legislation passed by the Provincial Government in 1919 made any extension in time impossible. Alderman Fargher informed the council that a majority of the members of the council favored giving relief in this way if it could be done legally.

Taxes by a valid visit each plant prior to the visit of the pupils and would decide on the route which should be taken through it, and the provisions necessary. The pupils would have a circular issued to them, containing information and cautions. The value of the excursions was undoubtedly, said the inspector. He pointed out that the children who had so far been shown through plants had walked, but it would not always be possible to do this, he explained.

Trustee Streets suggested that the Chamber of Commerce and the manufacturing firms should bear the cost of transporting the children. Trustee Backhouse responded that the Chamber of Commerce lacked funds. He thought that the pupils would be glad to provide their own car fare.

An offer of a $100 scholarship to be awarded in connection with the excursion was received from the Victoria Steam Laundry, and the chairman of the board, Trustee George Jay, and the municipal inspector, were appointed to take up the details with the head of the company.

TRUSTEES APPROVE INDUSTRIAL TRIPS

School Board Thinks Pupils' Excursions to Local Plants Valuable—Scholarship Offered by Firm

General approval of the recently inaugurated plan of having pupils of the public schools visit local industrial plants was expressed by the City School Board last night, after Municipal Inspector George H. Deane had explained the arrangements in regard to the matter.

Mr. Deane pointed out that in future one of the technical men on the teaching staff would visit each plant prior to the visit of the pupils and would decide on the route which should be taken through it, and the provisions necessary. The pupils would have a circular issued to them, containing information and cautions. The value of the excursions was undoubtedly, said the inspector. He pointed out that the children who had so far been shown through plants had walked, but it would not always be possible to do this, he explained.

Trustee Streets suggested that the Chamber of Commerce and the manufacturing firms should bear the cost of transporting the children. Trustee Backhouse responded that the Chamber of Commerce lacked funds. He thought that the pupils would be glad to provide their own car fare.

An offer of a $100 scholarship to be awarded in connection with the excursion was received from the Victoria Steam Laundry, and the chairman of the board, Trustee George Jay, and the municipal inspector, were appointed to take up the details with the head of the company.

DISTRIBUTE POPPIES IN CITY'S SCHOOLS

Collection of German War Souvenirs on View at Poppies Headquarters, 909 Government Street

The Armistice Period Committee has sent a letter to the principals of fifty schools in connection with the supply of poppies. Arrangements have been made to supply the poppies to scholars at a special price. Quite a number of advance orders have been received from the schools, but to avoid delay in delivery, principals of schools who desire a supply are asked to forward orders to Postoffice Box No. 1, Victoria, not later than Saturday, November 3. Only the approximate number of poppies required need be stated on these orders, as an extra supply can be secured next week.

The poppy depot at 909 Government Street, will be open every afternoon from 2 o'clock to 5:30 o'clock to receive orders and supply of the large poppies is now on hand for decorative purposes.

A display of German war souvenirs is on view in a window of the depot, same having been kindly loaned by Major F. Richardson, O.B.E.

ALL SAINTS' SERVICE

Combined Choirs of Anglican Churches Will Participate at St. John's This Evening

The combined choirs of the Anglican churches in Victoria will take part in the choral service to be held in St. John's Church this evening at 8 o'clock. The service is under the auspices of the Anglican Choral Union of Victoria, of which the Right Rev. Bishop Schofield is president.

The choirs have been practicing for several weeks under the direction of Mr. J. G. Burnett and Mr. Harold Davis. The music to be given includes the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis by Christopher Wren; the anthem, "The Sun Shall Be"; by Woodward; the feast responses and the All Saints' day hymns.

The service will be conducted by Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, the rector of St. John's, and all the city clergy will take part, the preacher for the occasion being Rev. J. R. Gorton, of Vancouver. All Anglicans and the general public are invited to attend. A celebration of the holy communion will be held on the morning of All Saints' Day at 10:30 o'clock.

MR. ESILING READY FOR P.G.E. QUIZZ

ROSSLAND MEMBER HAS QUESTIONS FOR GOVERNMENT
Wants to Know About Mr. Buckworth and Cost of Completion—Other Queries Are Filed

The Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the Coast Range Steel Company, and Doukhobors are among the subjects on which Mr. W. K. Esiling, Conservative member for Rossland, is seeking information from the Government. Last night he posted a long series of questions, which will be formally brought to the attention of the Government tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Esiling wants to know all about the resignation of Mr. A. E. Duckworth as manager of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, and he is also inquisitive about the conditions under which the office staffs are maintained at Vancouver and Squamish.

The proposed connection between the present end of steel north of Quenest and Prince George is also the subject of inquiry. Mr. Esiling will ask the Government to estimate the cost of making the connection, and whether tenders were ever called for in connection with that project.

Mr. Esiling's favorite theme in attacking the Government in past sessions has been the P.G.E., and it is expected that during the debates on that subject during the present session he will be able to throw some light on this issue, one of the most important and, at the same time, most contentious that the Government has to contend with.

Doukhobor School Outrage
The Rossland member will ask Premier Oliver whether he at any time gave financial assistance to the Doukhobors, or the Christian Society of Universal Brotherhood, by way of a loan or otherwise. He wants to know how many schools in the Doukhobor settlement have been destroyed by fire, and whether the Government has been able to establish the responsibility for these outrages.

Regarding the Coast Range Steel scheme, Mr. Esiling inquires whether the Premier at any time gave to Mr. H. J. Landahl, chief promoter of that enterprise, assurance that the Government would guarantee the bonds of the company to the extent of one-third of the amount required, and on what terms.

The cost of the Ymir road, the Revelstoke bridge, the Rossland-Christina Lake section of the trans-provincial highway, the iron ore survey, and of Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith's journeyings are additional subjects of inquiry.

Among the other members who have filed questions is Mr. Sam Guthrie, Socialist member for Newcastle, who will ask whether the Coal Mines Regulation Act is being observed by the (Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir), Limited, and if not, why not.

Mr. W. A. McKenzie, Similkameen, has some questions about the cost of building accommodation for Trans-Pacific employees, and Mr. John McRae, Invermere, inquires about the status of Mr. Gerald G. Latimer, engaged by the Government in connection with the South Okanagan irrigation project. The supply of meat for employees on that project is to be introduced by Mr. Esiling.

Hallowe'en Party

One of the gayest of the several children's Hallowe'en parties held last evening was at 1208 Oliver Street, Oak Bay, the hostess being Miss Fyvie Young, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Young. The hall and reception-rooms were mysterious with Hallowe'en favors and symbols of the "witch-riders' night." Dancing, games and fun of every order filled the three jolly hours from seven o'clock to ten, when the guests began to take their departure. Among those who attended the party were the Misses Betty Barty, "Babe" Hart, Marguerite Anderson, Angela Vought, Marguerite Vought, Edith Taylor, Violet Grey, Sheila McIlride, Helen Miller, Florence Whitney, and Masters Harry Barty, Kylie Symons, Ned Symons, Crawley Ricardo, Rock Robertson, Billy Lawson, Alec Grey, Sidney Cowan, Jim Clark, Huntley Redpath, Philip Haddon and Douglas Cree.

Hosts at Dance

CUMBERLAND

Badminton Club

The Cumberland Badminton Club, which is going strong this winter, held another meeting on Monday last, which was most enthusiastic. Complete reorganization was thoroughly discussed, as well as "ways and means." Rev. E. Nunns was elected secretary in place of Mrs. Bradner, who, on account of other duties, was unable to devote the time necessary. Mr. F. Squires was elected to the executive in place of Rev. W. Leveridge. It was decided to hold the annual dance on Friday of this week.

Bachelor House

Messrs. N. Murray, F. Squires and D. Fraser were hosts at a musical evening and bridge party at their bachelor quarters on Monday evening. Refreshments were served by the hosts during the evening, the guests having a most enjoyable time. The party broke up shortly after midnight.

From Vancouver

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Walker have arrived from Vancouver to take up their residence here.

Constable Returns

Mr. George Williams, constable, returned from Vancouver where he was taken on business.

From Cape Scott

Mr. Petersen, of Cape Scott, was a visitor in Port Alice on Tuesday.

For Vancouver

Mr. Hutchinson left on the Princess Maquinna for Vancouver.

J.B.A.A. Dance To Be Held Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow night the J.B.A.A. dance will be held at the Empress Hotel, under the distinguished patronage of His Worship Mayor Hayward and Mrs. Hayward, Brigadier-General and Mrs. R. P. Clark. The University of Washington Orchestra, under the leadership of Graham French, will be the great event of the function, which promises to be one of the most popular affairs of the season. The members of the committee have spared no effort to make the dance an outstanding success, and judging by the wide demand for tickets, the affair will be well attended.

Patient in Hospital

Mr. W. D. Owen, who met with a serious accident at Conox last week and who is at present a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, is progressing as well as can be expected.

En Route to London

Mr. H. H. Hinfold left on Tuesday morning for Vancouver, en route for London, England, where he will spend the next six months visiting relatives.

To Nanaimo

Mrs. G. J. Richardson, Mrs. G. Richardson, Mr. W. Bateman and Mr. R. Richardson motored to Nanaimo at the week-end to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. Parrott.

Convalescent

The many friends of Miss Olga Owen will be pleased to hear that she is making satisfactory progress towards recovery after a serious attack of pneumonia.

From Nanaimo

Miss Gladys Hindmarch, of Nanaimo, was a visitor to town at the week-end and was a guest of Mrs. W. A. Owen, Maryport Avenue.

For Victoria

Mrs. A. E. Jeffrey, Maryport Avenue, and Miss Robinson left Monday morning for Victoria, where they will spend a week's vacation.

From Walkerville

Mr. Ferrie, of the Parke-Davis Company, Walkerville, Ontario, was a visitor in town during the week.

PORT ALICE

Convalescent. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. McGee will be glad to hear that their little son, Donald, is progressing favorably after undergoing a serious operation.

Chief Engineer Arrives

Mr. Shaw arrived this week to fill the position of chief engineer vacated by the departure of Mr. Wm. Gibson, whose wife is leaving for the south early next month.

Returns Home

Miss Wilkison, of South Vancouver, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sid. Crowder, for the past two months, has returned to her home.

For Vancouver

Mr. Stennum, who has been in the employ of the Whalen Pulp & Paper Company for some time, left on Friday morning for Vancouver.

Leaves for Home

Mr. Wales, who has been engineer on the gasoline tug, Prospect Park, left on Friday for Maquinna for his home in Vancouver.

Business Visit

Mr. Gyles, receiver and manager of the Whalen Pulp & Paper Company, paid a short business visit to the plant at Port Alice this week.

Leaves for Victoria

Dr. Harry Dier, of Victoria, who has been on a medical tour here for the past ten days, has left for Victoria.

From Kyyouk

Mr. Wm. Byers, forest ranger, returned on the Princess Maquinna after spending the past ten days at Kyyouk and vicinity.

Mr. Dollar's Visit

Mr. Melville Dollar, of the Robert Dollar Company, paid a short business visit to Port Alice this week.

Indian Agent's Visit

Mr. Halliday, Indian agent from Alert Bay, was a visitor here this week.

From Vancouver

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Walker have arrived from Vancouver to take up their residence here.

LOCAL ELKS HOLD HALLOWE'EN DANCE

Members of Anclered Tribe Are Successful Hosts at Pleasant Function—Novelties a Feature

Members of Victoria Lodge, No. 2, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, last night added to their reputation as successful hosts when they entertained at a Hallowe'en dance, which was held in their club quarters, Weller Block, over one hundred and fifty guests enjoying the excellent programme presented during the evening. Heaton's entertainers provided an attractive variety of dance numbers, and the many couples did full justice to the music. The musicians were generous with encores, thus adding greatly to the success of the function. Several innovations introduced during the dance were much enjoyed by all.

The supper arrangements were in the capable hands of Bro. A. C. Hill, and there was nothing lacking in this particular. The function was the second of the series of monthly entertainments held by the local body of the B.P.O.E., and it proved even more successful than the opening affair.

The Elks plan holding a fancy dress carnival next month, the function to take the character of a masquerade frolic. The lodge held a number of these affairs last winter, and they were heartily indulged in by the members and their friends.

The committee of Elks which conceived the arrangements for last night's undertaking was composed of the following members: Bro. Alfred T. Weight, chairman, and Bro. Harry Reid, Harry Howard, Bob Petch, Herbert Collins, Bill Field, Frank Sommers, Jimmy Stewart, Gus Meehan and Jack W. Gillis.

FIREMEN'S BALL MEETS WITH GREAT SUCCESS

Nearly One Thousand Guests Attend Popular Dance Held Last Night at the Armory

The success which has attended annual balls given by the Victoria Fire Department in the past was entirely eclipsed by the triumph achieved by the genial hosts last night when they entertained nearly one thousand guests at the Armory.

For the occasion Zala's fifteen-piece orchestra had been engaged and the melodious and tuneful selections were greatly appreciated by the dancers who eagerly clamored for encores which were generously accorded.

A number of guests arrived at the dance towards midnight, as there were many Hallowe'en festivities which had first to be attended before the guests could get to the firemen's ball, could be enjoyed.

Great credit is due the committee in charge of the dance for the splendid arrangements which placed the function among the most popular and most enjoyable affairs of the season. The committee included Capt. Raymond, Lieut. Taylor, Mr. J. Barton, Lieut. Gwyer, Mr. P. G. Lieut. R. Brindle, Mr. Arthur Clarke, Mr. H. Dyer and other members of the department.

Among the many guests who were present last evening were Chief Stewart and Mrs. Stewart, Deputy Chief Munro, and a number of the members of the police force, including Serg. Hall, Serg. Walker and Constable Foster.

ANCIENT CRAFT NOW ON EXHIBITION HERE

Batikwork From Java Shown at Arts and Crafts' Exhibition in the Hudson's Bay Building

Visitors at the annual exhibition of the Arts and Crafts Society in the Hudson's Bay Store, have shown considerable interest in the display of Batikwork in the south-end of the hall. This collection is in the personal charge of Madame le Clercq, who has only recently arrived here from Java, where she studied and acquired all her knowledge of this ancient art.

Batik was first introduced to the Occident about two hundred and seventy years ago, when it was brought to Holland by some of the Dutch traders coming to Java. It had undoubtedly been practiced by the natives for hundreds of years before that time, the designs conventionalized and the technique of dye-making and application traditionalized. However, of recent years a fresh impetus to the art of Batik making has been given by modern artists, and the present keen interest in the craft is mainly due to Chris Lebeau Dusselhof and Lion Cachet, Dutch artists and designers of considerable reputation, who by their wonderful work have revived and stimulated a nation-wide appreciation of the work.

In Holland in years gone by the study of Batik was introduced into girls' schools as a regular course so that graduates might enter the social world fully equipped. Luckily for

Smartest of New Millinery Appears on Scene

Until you see the Meadowbrook collection, you will not realize how delightful the hats are. The tiny cloche that is being worn upon the head of Paris for every occasion is shown here in delightful variation. And so smart and generally becoming are the sports hats of the present mode that you will want one to complete some special frock or suit. All exclusive in design though conservative in price.

Its ultimate survival, however, it required so much technical knowledge that the study was soon left to more serious purposes. About fifteen years ago Batik was first introduced to the American continent, but for a long time failed to gain attention either as a craft or a fashion. However, during the last year or so it has become increasingly popular in Paris, Brussels, and other big centres for its value in creating decorative dress designs, and this has brought it into much greater notice over here.

Madame le Clercq's collection contains a number of beautiful designs of modern type as well as numbers of the native Javanese conventional designs on silk, and she is prepared to explain the entire method to inquirers. It is also understood that she intends starting a class in Batik making.

The Javanese use vegetable dyes principally in their manufacture of Batik, and some very beautiful soft colors have been produced by this means. The Dutch artists, however, have been able to get still richer effects and vivid and more varied colors by employing aniline dyes, and designs suitable for dress trimming, ornamentation of hats, blouse lengths, handbags, neckties, cushion covers, and wall panels are shown at the Arts and Crafts.

The Girl in the Corner Apartment

By MAY CHRISTIE

Author of "One Glorious Year," "The Daring Kim," Etc.

THE CHARACTERS
Cynthia Brent, country girl, living in a New York apartment she has inherited from an old lady she once befriended.

Ruby Allison, her gay and frivolous friend.

Alice Kerr, Ruby's fiancée.

Quentin Gray, an artist friend of Ruby.

Aunt Ellen, who keeps house for Cynthia.

Murray Stewart, for whom Cynthia is working as a stenographer.

Mrs. Wakeland, friend and rich client of Stewart, who takes a fancy to Cynthia.

Violet Jerrold, friend of Murray's.

LXVI—A Treat in Store

Was Cynthia fond of masculine attention? (Every normal woman is, but the infatuated man was in a mood to play counsel for the prosecution.)

Was she a flirt? Ought he to suppress his feelings for her before they led to further pain?

He reached his rooms, had a warm bath and went to bed.

But New York was awake now, and sleeping wasn't easy. Besides, his own thoughts were not soothing. They were like tormenting little demons, whirling round and round inside his head.

What a cad he was to harbor queer suspicions, but was it possible that his money and position had attracted the penniless Cynthia, so that his own attraction was as nothing beside the fact that he was well endowed with this world's goods?

There were lots of girls like that, of course. Was Cynthia one of them?

Sometimes it had struck him that, for a simple country maid, she was rather clever in her ways of handling men.

For instance, if she had been "Bucke" and a coward, Count Veron had raved over her the way he'd done?

Would that infernal little snob of Cyril have tried to stick to her side like glue, this evening, with admiring eyes that protruded like a startled fish, each time the girl was near him?

And would these smart men have fluttered round her in battalions, as they'd done, tonight—today—if in some way she hadn't "led them on," coquettishly?

He tossed from side to side of his bed, worried to death with surmises that, after all, and in a more normal mood, he would have looked upon as merely trifling.

At eight o'clock his telephone rang sharply, and with a muttered imprecation he sprang up and stifled its noise by jerking the receiver off its hook.

What idiotic fool wanted to converse with him at this unearthly hour?

The inconsiderate person proved to be Margaret Wakeland, and with an odd request to make!

A letter had arrived that demanded that she go to Chicago by a morning train, and might she please—as a great personal favor—take little Cynthia Brent with her?

There were reasons why she didn't want to take Horlene, her personal maid, and a glimpse of another city would be such a treat to Murray's untraveled young secretary!

Besides, there would be heaps of business letters to be written in Chicago. And strange stenographers were too hopeless, really! She wouldn't have time to write the documents herself.

This was Saturday, and Monday was a holiday. In any case, if Murray would only be an angel, and excuse Cynthia for Tuesday, she—Margaret Wakeland—would swear solemnly that the girl should be at her accustomed desk on Thursday morning.

"You're ruled by impulse, I'm afraid," said Murray into the instrument, with a wry little smile. "Of course, if you insist on kidnapping my secretary, I can't very well prevent it, can I? But what shall I do on Tuesday at the office? Who is to take Miss Brent's place? And what will she herself say to the arrangement?"

"Oh, I've already communicated with her, and she's positively delighted!" cried Margaret Wakeland at the other end of the wire.

Her statement was a distinct exaggeration of the facts, but Margaret was impressive.

"And I've fixed up a substitute, as well," she went on, cheerily. "Violet Jerrold says she can easily give you the whole day on Tuesday, and Wednesday, also, if you like!"

"Does she, indeed? Well, I don't seem to have much say in the matter!"

ter!" He was feeling very irritable, through lack of sleep and the torments of jealousy, and he didn't try to make his manner gracious. "But settle it as you will. Only I think that Miss Brent might have telephoned me before the thing was fixed!"

He rang off abruptly.

But Margaret Wakeland was too intent on her own plans to spend any time worrying over Murray Stewart's attitude in the matter.

He was an old, tried friend of hers, and all men were testy at times, and of course he was cross at being roused from slumber.

Her business was pressing, but there would be time to show the little country girl around the town, and that would be amusing and a bit of real philanthropy, which the good-hearted woman loved to execute.

Tomorrow—Cynthia Goes Away

AGRICULTURISTS WILL USE GROUNDS

Board Agrees to Preparation of Portion of High School Property—Greenhouse to Be Built

Decision to prepare part of the High School grounds for practical work by the agricultural class of the High School was reached by the City School Board last night, and a greenhouse will be built in connection with the scheme.

Municipal Inspector G. H. Deane, explaining the plan, pointed out that the present arrangements in regard to the use of property on Vining Street by the agricultural class were not satisfactory.

The growing of preparing the new ground, building the greenhouse, maintaining the Vining Street property until the end of the school year, and paying the other expenses of the course, outside of the actual instruction, until next June, was placed by Mr. Deane at $155. The cost of getting the new property ready and constructing the greenhouse was given as $720. The Provincial government grants will amount to $550, leaving a net amount of $305 to be met by the school board. Part of the High School grounds to be prepared will be utilized as a botanical garden, for the use of botany classes.

Mr. Deane declared that he was a firm believer in the botany instruction in the High School, feeling it to be more important than some other branches of science taught. The trouble had been in the past that it had not been made practical enough.

Trustee A. G. Smith took exception to the board paying the cost of transportation and of agricultural students on their excursions to farms, etc., as part of their course. He claimed that the students themselves should pay. The inspector conceded that the pupils might pay a part of the expense through a laboratory fee. Some trustees felt that the transportation cost should not be placed upon the students to the detriment of the course, but no action was taken.

Trustee J. L. Beckwith, chairman of the Finance Committee, assured the board that funds saved in other directions were available for the work, and it was unanimously decided to follow the recommendation in regard to making ready the new agricultural plot, which is on the western side of the High School grounds.

WILL UNFOLD PLAN FOR HOSPITAL DRIVE

Public Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow Night at Building Fund Campaign Headquarters

All Victorians interested in and sympathetic to the drive which is about to be launched by the Jubilee Hospital directors on behalf of the building fund are invited to attend a public meeting which is to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the campaign headquarters, in the vacant Central Building store, at the corner of View and Broad Streets. A number of invitations have been sent out to organizations and representatives of organizations whose support would be of great value to the undertaking. But the general public will be made equally welcome, and it is hoped as many as possible will be present, as Mr. R. F. Taylor, the campaign manager, will outline the plan of the campaign.

The committee announces that it has a definite objective in the campaign about to be launched; the sum it is determined to raise is $125,000. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has kindly consented to act as patron of the fund; Mr. R. F. Taylor will act as campaign manager, and the following constitute the honorary advisory committee:

Sir Frank S. Barnard, Mr. R. F. Taylor, Major Dupont, Mrs. Dunsmuir, Mr. A. C. Flumerfelt, Mr. John Galt, Mr. A. T. Howard, Mayor Hayward, Hon. John Hart, Reeve Hewlett (Oak Bay), Reeve Lockley (Esquimalt), Hon. Dr. MacLean, Hon. John Oliver, Mr. P. B. Pemberton, ex-Mayor C. E. Redfern, Mrs. D. Spencer, Mr. J. A. Hayward, Mr. Christian Rivers, Mr. C. F. Todd, Capt. J. W. Troup, Hon. Dr. Toimile and Reeve Watson (Saanchich).

The executive committee are: Mrs. C. Rhodes, Mrs. Schofield, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Mrs. Ross Rutherford, Mr. James Forman, Mr. Edwin Tomlin, Dr. J. P. Vye, Rev. W. G. Wilson, Mr. George McGregor, Mr. Charles Williams, Mr. Mark Graham, Mr. J. O. Cameron, Mr. F. Lansberg, Mr. H. D. Twigg, and Mr. R. F. Taylor, honorary chairman.

Garrison Start With Win Over School in Wednesday Football

Soldiers Defeat Cranleigh House Eleven by Six to Nil on Work Point Ground—Teamsters Are Shorthanded at Athletic Park, but Succeed in Defeating Hudson's Bay Team by One Goal to Nothing

THE Garrison Wednesday Soccer Team made a good start in the race for the Pendry Cup yesterday, when they defeated their opponents, the Cranleigh House School, by a six to nil score. At half-time the score was 4-0 in favor of the eventual winners, but in the second stanza the Tommies added another pair of goals to their total, making the final score 6-0. In the first fifteen minutes of the game the teams seemed to be fairly evenly balanced.

Schoolboys' Attack
The schoolboys were the first to test the opposing net custodian with a few shots which he proved quite capable of handling. As time went on the Tommies began to attack the Cranleigh House School, but the latter played a very close range. The second goal came from the same player but this time the ball was headed past the net guardian. By this time it was easily seen which was the best team, and, except for an occasional breakaway of the schoolboys, the Tommies had things mostly their own way. Before the whistle had sounded for half-time Coulter scored twice for the Garrison, making the score 4-0.

Upon the resumption of play the boys showed no signs of being daunted although they were on the wrong end of the score and in this half of the game the Cranleigh House players tried hard to register but they found it almost impossible to get past the strong defence of the Tommies. After about twenty-five minutes' play in the second half Coulter scored goal number five for the Garrison, and his fifth goal of the match, for up to this time all the scoring was done by this player. The last counter came from the boot of Huselton, playing inside left in the latter stages of the game, when with a well placed shot he beat the schoolboys' net custodian.

Tuckerwell refereed and the lineup was as follows:

Cranleigh House School—Cull, Milton, Donaldson, Hagen, Hayes, Wainman, Cassie, Martin, Conerton, Wainman and Huselton.

Garrison—Blas, Grimes and Armstrong; Mitchell, Hawkes, K. D. Cummings, Stevens, Coulter, Huselton and Pocock.

Teamsters Win
The Teamsters were shorthanded at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday, turning out with but nine men for their league soccer match against Hudson's Bay Co.'s eleven. The team was successful in taking the game from the Bay by one goal to nil.

The game was not remarkable for any very brilliant football, either by individuals or in combination, but the teamsters on the whole showed the better form and deserved to win by a small margin. They had rather the better of matters in the early stages of the game though towards the end of the first half the Bay's forwards became a bit dangerous and gave Jasper, in goal for the Teamsters, some anxious moments. However, quick and snappy shooting was not their strong point, and the danger to the Teamsters' goal was always averted.

A Good Goal
A strong attack by the Teamsters early in the second half of play resulted in a good goal being shot by Davis, and the scoring of this point seemed to put rather more life in the game. The Teamsters came again to the attack and another goal was shot, but disallowed for offside. However, Jasper and Jasper had some work to do at intervals, but there was no further scoring and no very outstanding play. Lynn for the Teamsters deserves a special word of mention, his work being always sound if not brilliant. Andy Veitch showed some speed with the ball at his feet, but was a bit slow in getting rid of it, even going so far as to sit on it on one occasion. The players all worked hard and when the season is further advanced these should be some good soccer to the Wednesday League as the team get better together and learn the value of combination.

Greece Not Competing In Coming Olympic Games
PARIS, Oct. 31.—Greece has decided not to send a team to Paris for the 1924 Olympic games and has so advised the French Olympic Committee. The financial consideration involved is the reason for the Greek decision. The Greek Olympic committee was the cradle of the Olympic games and the originator of the Marathon race will not be represented at the eighth revival of the games.

FARMER WINS DECISION
PORTLAND, OEL. 30.—Frank Farmer, Tacoma heavyweight, took a ten-round boxer over Nig Yeager, Portland boxer, here tonight. Farmer was too experienced for his younger opponent and took the fight of the round. Farmer used a straight left to the face with telling effect throughout the fight. Otto Robinson, 165, won in six rounds from Lome Wolf McDonald, 175, in the semi-finals.

Boxing Programme Will Have Plenty of Interest
Promoter T. A. Crawford, who is handling the big boxing tournament to be held at the Caledonia Hall on November 13 for the National Sporting Club of Victoria, last night announced the complete programme. In addition to the main event, in which Johnny Morgan, of Ladyship, and Roy Cliffe, of Courtney, will meet for the middleweight championship of British Columbia, there will be three other good events on the card.

The first preliminary will start at 5:30 sharp, when F. Tubey and J. C. Crows, both Victoria boys, will fight four rounds at 115 pounds. This will be followed by a three-round contest.

HOPPE BADLY BEATEN BY WELKER COCHRAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Welker Cochran, of Los Angeles, furnished the sports of the world's 18.2 ball line billiard tournament tonight, defeating William F. Hoppe, the titleholder, 500 to 230. In defeating Hoppe, Cochran, the young American player in the tournament, made the highest run of the week, 145, and in finishing in sixteen innings, set up the best average, 31.4-16.

Hoppe, far off his game, never could get the balls rolling satisfactorily. There does not seem to be any immediate likelihood of Canada's hold on the world's hockey championship being seriously challenged. Canadian hockey would be the first to welcome challengers from any other country, says the editorial, which continues: "In the other nations of the British Empire, however, young players have no such opportunity for learning the wonderful Winter game on the ice as they have in Canada. It is probable that Canada could still hold the championship for lacrosse, too, but for the element of roughness that is detracted from the pleasure of the game that it finally deprived. The country of the lead in the truly Canadian outdoor game.

Rugby football, as played in Great Britain, is the game that is also played in every other British country excepting Canada. Because Canadian schools have been led to follow the American style of rugby, Canada is unable to participate on an equal footing with Australia, New Zealand or South Africa in the great international tours that are made by the Rugby Union clubs within the league of British nations.

CAMBRIDGESHIRE WON BY VERDICT

LORD COVENTRY'S HORSE WINS BY JUST A NECK

Epinal, on whom Frenchmen's Hopes Were Placed, Second—Defeat Taken Seriously

NEWMARKET, Oct. 31.—Verdict, at 100-7 against, owned by Lord Coventry, won the Cambridgeshire Stakes of £1,000 with extras, run here today. Pierre Wertheimer's Epinal, at 3-1 against, was second, and C. Hardy's Dumas, at 1-1 against, was third. Twenty-three horses ran. Verdict, by Shogun, of France, won by a neck. A length separated the second and third horses.

The victory of Verdict over Epinal spoiled a betting coup for which the owner of the latter had carefully laid his plans. Wertheimer stood to win £10,000 if Epinal had won today, without having risked a cent of his own money. He won £20,000 on Epinal, at 3-1 against, in the Caseworth Stakes, October 17, and these winnings were by prearrangement, wagered at 6 to 1 on Epinal for today's race.

Was Heavily Backed
PARIS, Oct. 31.—"Epinal is beaten" was the shout of consternation that arose from the immense crowds congregated before the newspaper offices when the crack French three-year-old in the Cambridgeshire Stakes was fashed today.

The popular distaste was apparently even greater when Dempsey knocked out Georges Carpentier. The rank and file was touched deeper in the pockets, as the race followers in France had played Epinal to win pretty much as if the race returns were already in.

H. J. Davis and J. E. Wilson vs. Col. Bennett and N. Thornton-Pell.
Stan Haynes and J. H. Waghorn vs. Hew Patterson and Major Barton.

Major Robert and H. P. Johnson vs. J. D. Virtue and Col. J. O. Wilson.
P. Nation and W. L. McIntosh vs. A. Musgrave and A. D. King.
J. L. Mara and H. W. H. Moore vs. W. Percy and T. O. Mackay.

Judge Lampman and A. H. Ford vs. Hon. J. Hart and A. Gore.
Dr. Barrett and J. P. Babcock vs. Capt. Westmorland and Mr. Hesterman.

E. D. Todd and Col. Lightbody, a bye.
W. H. MacInnes and H. A. Ross, a bye.
Louis Roy and H. H. Shandley, a bye.

L. H. Hardie and F. A. MacCallum, a bye.

The combined handicaps of each couple will be divided by four and the result expressed in strokes. The handicap allowed. The entrance fee of one dollar for each player must be paid to the secretary before taking part in the competition. All matches to be eighteen holes.

RACING SCHOONERS AGAIN BECALMED

Columbia Showed Her Ability in Air Too Light to Make a Real Sailing Race

HALIFAX, Oct. 31.—The second race of the series for the International Fishermen's trophy was called off today for lack of wind with 16 miles left to go to the finish line, but the United States challenger, Columbia, cheered her supporters by demonstrating her ability in light airs.

In the first race Monday light breezes prevailed, supposedly Columbia weather, yet the big defender, Bluesoon, of Lunenburg, famed for her rough weather performances, showed the Gloucester schooner her heels.

Today conditions were changed, and with never a breeze above 8 knots, the challenger ghosted along over more than half the course in the lead of the champion sometimes as much as a mile ahead.

With only an hour of the allotted six left, not much more than half the course had been covered and 16 miles of thrash to windward, slow going, lay ahead. The commander decided to call the contest off and wait for better sailing conditions.

MULE POLO IS LATEST

SEATTLE, Oct. 31.—Mule polo is an innovation created by soldiers at Fort Lawton here. Mounted on army mules, the soldiers, composed of two four-men teams, engage in bitter battles, using brooms for mallets and volley balls for polo balls.

RUGBY IS BEST GAME FOR CANADA

ENGLISH CODE SHOULD BE USED THROUGH DOMINION

Played in All Other British Dominions—Universities Urged to Lead in Matter

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—Under the caption, "International Rugby Franchise," The Ottawa Citizen continues to boost the English style of rugby for adoption in Canada.

"There does not seem to be any immediate likelihood of Canada's hold on the world's hockey championship being seriously challenged. Canadian hockey would be the first to welcome challengers from any other country," says the editorial, which continues: "In the other nations of the British Empire, however, young players have no such opportunity for learning the wonderful Winter game on the ice as they have in Canada. It is probable that Canada could still hold the championship for lacrosse, too, but for the element of roughness that is detracted from the pleasure of the game that it finally deprived. The country of the lead in the truly Canadian outdoor game.

Because Canadian schools have been led to follow the American style of rugby, Canada is unable to participate on an equal footing with Australia, New Zealand or South Africa in the great international tours that are made by the Rugby Union clubs within the league of British nations.

All-Blacks' Tour
It is stated that the New Zealanders intend to tour Great Britain again next year. In the tour they made in 1905 they were beaten only once, when Wales furnished an international team that won their game against the New Zealanders. The Springboks of South Africa similarly made a victorious tour of the British Isles. Canada has the men who could win similar renown for Canadian football, but until the Canadian universities and colleges become inspired with the broader vision of playing the game as it is played elsewhere in the British Commonwealth, nobody, outside of the country knows that Canada is a football players' country—as a young man's country should be.

The Rugby Union game would attract a great public interest grows in such efforts as are being made in Ottawa, Montreal and other Canadian cities to promote the game. Universities like Toronto, McGill and Queen's, and the R.M.C. at Kingston, may be inspired to adopt the British style of playing the game, just as other nations in the Commonwealth, as well as from the Mother Country, would find it worth while to try the game.

Before many years Canada promises to be in the first rank among the Association football countries. The youngsters are taking up soccer with enthusiasm. They would go in for the Rugby Union game with just as much enthusiasm, given the opportunity.

Calgary Loses Chance In Canadian Rugby

CALGARY, Oct. 30.—Calgary's chances to represent Alberta in the Western Canadian Rugby Union have been forfeited, as the 50th Battalion team of this city finds it impossible to go to Edmonton to play the Rockies Wednesday afternoon. Calgary, however, will remain in the running for junior rugby honors, as the guarantee for the Saskatchewan, of Saskatoon, to play the Canucks here on Saturday in the Western semi-finals was raised tonight, and all preparations for the game have been completed.

Zev Wins First Race After Beating Papyrus

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Making his first start since conquering Papyrus in the international race, Zev, crack Rancocna stable three-year-old, today won the $5,000 Autumn championship stakes at Empire City in a gallop. Bracdale, a stablemate, was second.

SEATTLE BOXING RESULTS

SEATTLE, Oct. 30.—Joe Gorman, of Portland, lightweight, won a decision here tonight over Johnny Ralder, of Los Angeles, in the six-round main event. Frankie Britt, of Astoria, won a decision over Ad. Madira, Portland, lightweight, in the six-round semi-final bout.

Other results were: Roy Bimal, Tacoma, lightweight, knocked out Ah Fong, of Seattle, in the third round. Bud Oliver, of Bremerton, fought a four-round draw with Bob Connors, a lightweight of Tacoma. Kid Fosse, of Seattle, fought a four-round draw with Billy Quilter, Seattle featherweight.

The Ruhr Valley in Germany has an approximate area of 1,200 square miles.

Boxing Programme Will Have Plenty of Interest

weight championship bout between Vic Holman, of Duncan, who tips the beam at 54½ pounds, and Charlie Stock, of Nanaimo, who is just half a pound heavier.

What is expected to be a really fine contest is the next on the card, in which the light heavyweight championship of Vancouver Island, with Anderson, of Ladyship, and G. Gardiner, of Victoria, as the principals. Gardiner is a former lightweight champion of the Canadian navy. The last and main event will be the so-called Morgan and Cliffe.

This will be refereed by P. O. Steele, of Iles, Manley's Canadian navy, and Frank Minin will be the referee for the other events.

SCOTLAND WINS

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The inter-league game played today between the Scottish and Irish Leagues resulted in a victory for Scotland by a score of one to nothing.

Southpaw Golfers to Have Own Tournament

SEATTLE, Oct. 31.—The first annual left-handed golf championship of this city will be held here at the Inglewood Country Club, next Sunday, according to announcement today. Fifteen southpaw golfers will participate.

The rules call for 18 holes of medal golf, with the club handicap allowed and the net results determining the outcome.

Prizes will consist of one left-handed golf club, "two left-handed golf socks," two "left-handed handkerchiefs," and six "left-handed golf balls."

OLD COUNTRY FOOTBALL

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Football games played under the auspices of the Rugby Union this afternoon resulted as follows:

Cardiff 5, St. Bartholomew's Hospital 3.

Davenport Services 23, Camborn 6. Oxford University 23, Leicester 11.

County Championships:
Kent 3, Hampshire 2.

Lancashire Cup:
Second round (replay)—Swinton 21, St. Helen's 8.

THREE DESTROYER MEN FACE COURT-MARTIAL

Officers in Command of Wrecked Squadron Charged With Culprable Inefficiency in Navigation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Bad judgment and faulty navigation on the part of three officers caused the loss of 23 lives and of naval material to the value of $130,000 in the destroyer accident on Honda Point, Cal., September 8. The board of inquiry declared in its final report to Secretary Denby.

On the recommendation of the board, Captain R. H. Johnston, the senior commander, Lieut. Commander Donald Hunger, commanding the Delphi, flagship, and leader of the nine destroyers which grounded, and Lieut. L. F. Blodgett, navigator of the Delphi, will be charged before a general court-martial with "culpable inefficiency in the performance of duty."

The report also charges with negligence. Eight other officers, including the commanders of as many destroyers which figured in the catastrophe, will face charges of negligence in the performance of duty.

The report was declared by veteran naval officers here to be almost unprecedented in its sweeping condemnation of those alleged to be responsible for the disaster.

EMINENT AUTHOR AND LECTURER SPEAKS HERE

Teachers of the City Have Secured Interesting Educationalist of New York to Give Address

Dr. Edward P. Devine, for many years one of the most eminent scholars and lecturers in Columbia University, New York, where he held the chair of Social Economics, will visit Victoria this week.

On Friday evening he will lecture in the Congregational Church on "The Social Aim of Modern Education." For a number of years Dr. Devine was editor of The Survey, director of the New York School of Philanthropy, and secretary of the New York Charity Organization Society. He was also a member of the U. S. Coal Commission which recently issued its report. His books, a number of which are to be found on the shelves of the local Public Library, include such works as "Misery and Its Causes," "The Principles of Relief," "Disaster Soldiers and Sailors," "Social Work," and "The Normal Life."

The Victoria teachers, under whose auspices Dr. Devine is coming to Victoria, took advantage of his presence in Seattle, whither he had been invited to give a series of lectures at the annual three-day convention of the teachers of the State of Washington, and persuaded him to come to Victoria.

The Ruhr Valley in Germany has an approximate area of 1,200 square miles.

Clem Trihey Is First Of Cougars to Come

Flashy Montreal Puckchaser Reaches City and Is Ready for Big Season—Looks Over Local Ice Rendezvous and Hopes to Land Regular Berth With Lester Patrick's Sextette This Winter

CLEM TRIHEY, the puckchaser who has left the amateur ranks in Montreal for the pro company, arrived in town yesterday and is ready for a big time on the Coast this winter. Trihey breezed into the city after a train journey across the continent, and looked in tip-top shape for the season. Although somewhat fatigued after the trip, Clem said he hoped he would live up to all the complimentary reports about him, and intimated that he would be fighting for a regular berth on the Cougars' roster.

Soccer Notes

By A. B. B.

Heavy Scoring Games

Goal-scoring on a large scale has rarely been a strong point with the Dundee forwards, but they came out in a new line Saturday afternoon in their league game with the Hibernians at Dens Park. There were nine goals in the game, so that the spectators got full value for their money.

That Dundee obtained seven against a defence such as the Hibernians possess is truly remarkable. The Hibs rarely sacrifice many goals in their league matches, for their defence has generally been of the best, with Harper (Scottish international custodian) in goal.

Incidentally, it may be noted in passing that the record score by a club in the Scottish League stands to the credit of the Celtic, and, oddly enough, their victims were Dundee to the extent of eleven goals.

In two instances this season the Clyde has lost six goals—to Airdrieonians and Partick Thistle.

English Records

Twenty goals have twice been scored in English First Division games. Notts Forest beat Leicester Fosse by 12-0 at Nottingham in 1906, thus equalling the record of West Bromwich Albion against Darwen in 1892.

Aston Villa has scored ten goals in a league game against Sheffield Wednesday.

Last season Burnley obtained eight against Notts Forest at Turf Moor, but failed to score in the return game at Nottingham a week later.

Echoes of the Past

Arbroath (Forfarshire) beat Bon Accord (Aberdeen) by 35-0 in a Scottish Cup tie many years ago, and on the same day Dundee Harp won by 35-0 against Aberdeen Rovers.

Preston North End knocked out Hyde by 24-0 in an English Cup tie.

Scottish Second Division

Cowdenbeath (Fife) and Kilmarnock (Strling) are running a neck-and-neck race for the Scottish Second Division championship, with Armdale and Bones in hot pursuit.

Cowdenbeath was the last team to surrender their unbeaten record, when they were beaten by 1-0 at home by Armdale, on October 20.

A feature of this season's Second Division competition is the comparative failure of teams which were formerly in the premier section. The clubs are: Albion Rovers, St. Bernard's, Dumbarton, Vale of Leven, and Alloa.

Two years ago Alloa won the championship in a canter, but after a season in the First Division and a return to the lower section, the club has fallen off in a marked degree.

Exams for Players

A well-known English referee holds the view that players should be registered as a professional, or, for that matter, as an amateur, until he has passed an examination on the laws of the game.

Players, especially professionals, he says, are often grossly ignorant of the rules, with the result that they honestly but mistakenly dispute perfectly good decisions.

Advice to Wing Forwards

A prominent soccer official in England has publicly voiced the following opinion:

"If wing forwards would aim at the penalty spot and emerge their centre from some twenty yards from the goal line, instead of delaying their kick until in close proximity to the corner flag, they would not get so much applause from spectators for spectacular runs, but they would be of greater service to their side."

Glorious Uncertainty

Football owes much for its attraction to the simple fact that no one can see very far ahead (says The Westminster Gazette).

The game is treated with such seriousness nowadays that the transfer of a player from one club to another, or the mistake of a goalkeeper, is regarded with the importance of an affair of state.

The business element in British football would have killed the game long ago but for the omnipresence of the gods of chance. No matter how rich or how poor a club may be, a lucky goal will upset the minutest calculation.

VETERANS' FOOTBALL MEETING

The Veterans' Football Club held a meeting last night with W. G. Stone in the chair. The secretary reported that Manager Hughes had gone up to Anzac, and McCaig was asked to take his place in the meantime. The secretary stated that J. Roe, Merfield and Reg. Clarkson would not be able to play on Saturday, all three being under doctors' orders owing to injuries received in last Saturday's game.

Lakes Victoria Fine

Lester Patrick, local hockey mogul, and manager of the Victoria Hockey Club, met Clem Trihey on his arrival yesterday, and showed him some of the city. Trihey told The Colonist last night that he had always heard such a lot of nice things about this place that he was very anxious to come here and enjoy Victoria's advantages. He declared that his first impressions of the city were extremely favorable.

Clem gave the local ice-palace the once-over, and he is very pleased with the arena, and believes that he will be able to display his ability as a pond artist in good fashion when the Cougars get into action after their annual summer recess. Trihey stated that he will do his best with the Victoria Cougars, and hopes to earn a regular post on the team.

Trihey will make his debut on the local pond next Monday, when he will join the other members of the Cougars in the opening practice session. Undoubtedly a large number of local ice enthusiasts will be on the sidelines watching Clem and his colleagues work out. Jocke Anderson, Harry Meeking and Albert Anderson, already in the city awaiting the opening song, these boys having received their training during the summer months. All the puck-chasers expected to be here by the first of the week, with the possible exception of Frank Fredericksen and Clem Lougheed, who are expected to arrive by next Wednesday.

DRUG SMUGGLING PLAN UNCOVERED

SEATTLE, Oct. 31.—Bill Okusono, chief steward of the Japanese steamship Ayaya Maru, and Jinsaburo Otsuka, purser of the same vessel, were being held tonight in Aberdeen, Washington, by U.S. customs inspectors from Seattle on a charge of bargaining to bring $1,000,000 worth of narcotics into the United States every few months. It was announced by Federal officers. Planned for $60 pounds of the drugs every time the ship docked, narcotics agents said.

The prisoners are said to be the representatives of the largest narcotic ring in the Japanese empire. The Federal agents were sent to the vessel, where a pound of a narcotic was purchased for $500 in the cabin of the chief steward, Okusono. The agents followed. Federal agents claim that $500 was paid to the Japanese, and that they have in their possession one pound of a drug which could retail for about $7,000 in this city.

The Ayaya Maru left Aberdeen for Vancouver, B.C., today.

Race Said to Exist in Eastern Panama—Explorer Says They Are Fair and Have Yellow Hair

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Oct. 31.—Discovery of a race of white Indians, with flaxen hair, in the almost impenetrable jungles of eastern Panama, is reported by Richard O. Marsh, of Brockport, an explorer, just returned from the Isthmus. Mr. Marsh, the first white man to advance into that unexplored region of Central America since Balboa, brought back with him photographs to substantiate his claims. The story of the discovery is told

To Advocate Protective Tariff for Britain

Premier Baldwin is to speak at the Unionist party conference at Plymouth, England, Thursday, advocating a protective tariff for Britain and an extension of the Imperial preference. The picture was taken recently when he was besieged by college girls who were autograph hunting.

formal recognition of the three-mile limit in questions of general maritime rights as being likely to be invaluable to them. Only recently Soviet Russia agitated for the establishment of a twelve-mile limit for all maritime purposes, but with the American Government supporting the British stand, it is expected the principle will remain an established international law.

Newcastle Consulate Mr. Harvey's farewell conference with Lord Curzon also disposed of the only other unsettled question which has arisen since his arrival—that of the Newcastle consulate.

It is believed that an equitable settlement is possible, and that the consulate, which was closed on February 2, last, will be reopened within a fortnight. The consular officials involved will be persona grata with the British Government, but, having departed for new posts, will not return to Newcastle.

With the settlement of the rum-running and Newcastle issues, Mr. Harvey leaves London with no problems left over for his successor, who, as the Ambassador said today, is likely to have troubles enough of his own.

Mr. Harvey and his wife had luncheon at Buckingham Palace yesterday, after which the King presented them with a farewell gift.

Presented Name of Successor During luncheon the Ambassador had the opportunity to present the name of Senator Frank B. Kellogg, who has been appointed to succeed in more informal manner than is usual, and was assured by their Majesties that the former senator would have a most cordial reception at the Court of St. James.

It is reported that Mr. Kellogg is sailing for London on November 11, but Ambassador Harvey hopes to be able to confer with him in America before he starts, and yesterday called him asking the date of his departure.

Traditional Policy Commenting upon the possibility of senatorial objection to Mr. Kellogg, which has been reported here, Mr. Harvey said he once described the Senate as a self-appreciative body, and that it might be remembered that it was an inviolable tradition that the name of anybody who ever sat in the Senate never failed of confirmation by the Senate for any appointment.

Mr. Harvey added that some of the newly-elected Western Senators were probably unaware of this tradition, but that they would be reminded of it when they saw the name of the President's appointee.

The Harveys, with their granddaughter, Dorothy Thompson, are leaving London Friday afternoon, sailing on the Aquitania on Saturday. They plan a two months' visit to Honolulu after spending a few weeks at home.

MR. POOLEY BRINGS UP MORE LIQUOR CHARGES

consider what he had said in its relation to the rest of the story he revealed.

Suddenly Rich Beener, who is said to have grown suddenly rich, and who is known to have operated in the liquor business in big ways in the north at the Liberator, was mentioned.

"I wouldn't know this man if he walked in here today," said the Premier. "I don't know him, but I know that when agents had gone to Prince Rupert to investigate liquor connections, Beener was notified by wire of their coming, and had met them and entertained them."

Mr. Pooley tried to refresh the Premier's memory by recalling that Oler Beener had been the leading representative from the north at the Liberal convention in Nelson a year ago. Then he told of his recent attempt to investigate at first hand the liquor scandal of Prince Rupert.

Mr. Pooley described the Skeena Club, which, he said, was built on a scow attached to the Government wharf in such a position that the crews from fishing craft were obliged to pass its doors on their way to shore. He passed around photographs of the club so that the members could see the layout for themselves.

Oler's Car Disappears "I could hear the men making a noise inside, dozens of them, and when the spotter who greeted me told them in expressive language to keep quiet, the babble was replaced by the click of cash registers," said Mr. Pooley. "And a few yards away the big high-powered car of Oler Beener suddenly rolled away."

Mr. Hanson said the Skeena Club was not using a government wharf, although the location was government property, under lease.

Then why didn't you turn them out? demanded Mr. Pooley. "We did," replied the Attorney-General, who remarked that prominent Conservative Prince Rupert had held the lease.

"I understand that the whole place has been closed out since I was here," said Mr. Pooley. "It all happened very suddenly, and Oler Beener had fled away to New Brunswick. The Attorney-General should know all about this, because the Skeena Club is incorporated and is represented by his own firm. It was originally incorporated by Patmore and Fulton, but in 1922, after Mr. Manson was made Attorney-General, the club changed its solicitors. Could it be that the reason was Mr. Manson's appointment? Then the club's system was changed. The number of shareholders was reduced to five, 2,682 shares being held by Alexander Gooch, Beener's right-hand man, and one each by the other four. Immediately after the place was closed, Gooch left for New Brunswick."

Mr. Pooley: "What are the liquor Board's sleuths for? This is the business of the Liquor Board and not of private members. Yet the Government has paid agents going out to the country who are nothing less than stool pigeons. Many of them are as much entitled to jail sentences as the men they try to catch."

Mr. Pooley: "I am not a prohibitionist when I say that."

Source Mr. Clearhue Mr. Pooley took exception to the statements made by Mr. J. B. Clearhue, junior member for Victoria, in moving the address in reply to the speech from the Throne. Mr. Clearhue, he recalled, has extolled the Government for improvement in conditions throughout the Province, while at the same time accusing the Opposition with spreading "whispers of death" and the gospel of pessimism to satisfy political greed.

I take particular exception to such statements," said Mr. Pooley. "I would suggest that such language may sound well, but it doesn't get the Province anywhere. The junior member for Victoria says that conditions throughout the Province are rosy and that the Government is responsible. I wish that conditions were as bright as he has painted them. There is no sugar in the air, and the Government is hiding our heads in the sand and refusing to look facts in the face. We have a long way to go before we have a full dinner pail, less taxes and more work."

Mr. Pooley recalled the Premier's trip into the Interior and he wondered whether the Premier would agree with Victoria's junior member that conditions were rosy.

"I toured through the Interior myself not long ago and I found conditions anything but bright," said the Premier. "No one can be so naive as to realize the wonderful possibilities of that country, but today it is stagnant, because the farmers are disheartened, although the trip made by Mr. Smith to the Old Country at the expense of the people of the Province had undoubtedly been a pleasant one for her. He ridiculed the idea of working for immigrants before conditions in the Province were set in order."

"What is the use of trying to bring in new settlers when our own sons and daughters are flocking out of the Province because they have found conditions here undesirable?" asked the Esquimalt member. "Even when these people do come to the Province and try to make a living on the land, the Minister of Agriculture threatens to deport them if they lose heart and appeal to him for help. I say that it would have been better for the lady member to stay at home, for the Minister of Agriculture and the Minister of Finance to stay at home until something has been done to set their house in order before journeying in foreign lands, telling what a fine place we have over here. The Oler Government has made British Columbia appeal to immigrants to come and try to make a living on the land, the attitude of the spider to the fly. The Province lures these people here and eats them up with oppressive taxation and then hurls them out. It calls them dead ones. Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, called them that—a most astounding statement for a minister of the Crown to make."

Premier Oliver rose to contradict the member. "Dr. King's reference was to the places that the people left and not to the people themselves," said the Premier.

"I'm sorry, but that contradiction is not acceptable," said Mr. Pooley. "The statement was given very wide publicity at the time and it brought forth no denial then."

League which is urging that first choice be given clause D, to establish Government Control of all liquor and legal sale of beer on licensed premises, asserted just as positively that prohibition has been a failure, that it has not been and cannot be enforced, that government control would eliminate the drinking of liquor, and that they deny that the bar would be restored by a controlled licence system.

Telegraph Service Meets Interference

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Transmission of news over the Canadian Press leased wire between Ottawa and Winnipeg ceased at about 2:10 o'clock this afternoon when a number of Canadian Pacific Railway telegraph poles were torn down by a Canadian National Railway derrick, which was working on a minor

If there are any pronounced swing in the early returns in favor of one of the four proposals, the deferred returns will not alter the solution.

SEPARATIST MOVE LOSING IN FORCE

Rhineland Republic Is Not Recognized by French Authorities in Germany

DUSSELDORF, Oct. 31.—The young Rhineland Republic has lost ground during the last few days, according to the German newspapers, while a French circular letter which the German press publishes, shows that the separatists have been reminded that they are not recognized by the French as in full control of the Rhineland.

The French communiqué today makes no mention of the republic but reports from German sources declare the separatists have cleared out of the towns of Jülich, Neuss, and Meuschen-Gladbach and that the territory around these towns has been freed from Republican control.

A dispatch to the semi-official wire Bureau from Eschirchen, near Bonn, states that the French superior delegate of the Rhineland Commission had addressed a circular letter to all the Burgomasters in his district advising them that the separatists Republic has not yet been officially recognized anywhere. Therefore, the circular letter adds, the old regime stands throughout the district.

BRITISH STATESMAN REACHES NEW YORK

Mr. David Lloyd George Will Speak Twice in Metropolitan Before Leaving for Home

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Mr. David Lloyd George returned to New York tonight, the last stop of his triumphant tour of America. His train reached Hoboken at 7:45. A fairly good sized group welcomed the little Welshman, while a corps of Hoboken police guarded the railway station, threatening letters having been received.

Speaks Twice
The former British Premier will deliver two addresses in New York, speaking at the Lotus Club on Thursday night and at the Metropolitan Opera House on the eve of his departure for Europe.

Speakers at the Lotus Club dinner, in addition to the guest of honor, will be Mr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president, and who will preside; Mr. Chauncey M. Depew, Mr. Charles M. Schwab and Mr. Melville E. Stone.

At Scranton
SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—This was David Lloyd George's day in Scranton, and a notable welcome was arranged for the distinguished visitor, with the city declaring a half-holiday and societies and civic organizations vying with each other in extending greetings.

Mr. Lloyd George attended a private luncheon at noon with prominent citizens, and planned to speak in the afternoon at a mass meeting.

HIGH COMMISSIONER HAS MANY ACTIVITIES

Arrangements to Facilitate Business
With Canada—Travelers Helped
—Information for Government

LONDON, Oct. 16.—During the last week 215 visitors called at the Canadian office in Kinross House, of these 124 obtained interviews and thirty-nine registered.

On Thursday, October 11, the High Commissioner took the chair at a debate held in the Hermondey Town Hall between the Rev. M. Lucas, Church of England clergyman, in charge of an East End parish, and Mr. Salter, the Labor member of Parliament for the district.

Arrangements have been made for the convenience of business firms whereby customs duty stamps may be purchased at the High Commissioner's office for the prepayment of import duty on advertising matter, price lists and catalogues forwarded to Canada. The stamps are affixed to the package for the amount of duty payable on same, thereby obviating the trouble and delay attendant in collecting the duty when this has not been prepaid. Excise duty stamps are also available for the prepayment of the excise duty levied in Canada on certain goods. These are affixed to the goods in Great Britain, thereby avoiding the necessity for opening the packages when they arrive in Canada.

Aids to Travelers
Although all passport matters in England are dealt with by the Foreign Office, the High Commissioner's office is often able to intervene on behalf of traveling Canadians, and to assist them in difficulties that arise from time to time. A considerable number of Canadians have been afforded facilities by the Canadian office, especially in cases where haste was imperative and when official representations on behalf of an applicant carried more weight than if the request had been put forward in the usual way. In cases where visas are required for passports, the Canadian office can furnish up-to-date information, and frequently is instrumental in putting the holder of the passport, in touch with the proper officials.

One of the departments of the High Commissioner's office, which daily performs a most necessary duty on behalf of the Canadian Government, is that which watches the British press for comments of every kind in regard to Canadian Government policy. This department, with its efficient news-cutting service, keeps the Canadian Government informed on such matters as should properly be brought to their notice.

Another branch of this work is the keeping of the Government, departments in Ottawa familiar with the work done by similar departments in the British Government. Reports of these are sent out to Ottawa regularly from the High Commissioner's office in London.

The Canadian office has been taking up the matter of the British-born wives of United States citizens resident in Canada who cannot obtain United States passports. The High Commissioner has now been notified by the Colonial Office that affidavits taken in Canada and endorsed by Canadian passport officers would be accepted in this country as satisfactory evidence of nationality and identity of holder.

For Use in Arctic
Negotiations for the purchase by the Canadian Government from the British Admiralty of a tug of some 400 tons have been carried on by Captain J. E. Hemler, the Arctic explorer, through the High Commissioner and with his active assistance. The recent report on the safety of the Canadian Government steamer Arctic, for which some anxiety was being experienced, recalls the fact that it was originally intended that this tug, formerly the SS. St. Finbar, now renamed after the famous explorer, Franklin, should accompany the Arctic on her present expedition, but it was not found possible to complete the alterations and outfitting necessary for voyaging in the Arctic. The Franklin is now lying at Portland, it is expected that Capt. Hemler will return to this country during the next few months to supervise the remaining alterations and take the ship to Canada for next year's work in northern waters.

During the last week Mr. Larkin has obtained a number of invitations for distinguished Canadian visitors for the reception at Lansdowne House and at the Speakers' and Mrs. Whit-

CHINESE EMPEROR SUED BY GOLDSMITH

New President Applied to for Partial Payment of Imperial Allowance

PEKING, Nov. 1.—The last of the rulers of the great Manchu dynasty, Puyi, the "Boy Emperor" of China, sitting in his palace in the Forbidden City, has been sued by a Peking goldsmith for $100,000 and has applied to the new President, Tiao Kun, for a partial payment of the Imperial allowance of 4,000,000 (Mexican) dollars, according to the Asiatic Agency. But there is little chance of the government acceding to the partial payment plea, as the finance ministry at present is unable to raise sufficient funds to pay officials and other public servants.

As a result it is expected that further relief of one mighty Manchu house will be sacrificed by the "Boy Emperor" to meet his debts.

The court in which the goldsmith's claim is filed is taking into consideration the extreme poverty of Puyi, and has agreed to treat the case leniently and give the ex-empire time to raise whatever cash he can to satisfy his creditors.

For many months the "Boy Emperor" has been trying to adjust his expenses to his income. The latter during recent political upheavals has been virtually nothing. He even dismissed from service in the Forbidden City 1,000 eunuchs in an attempt to halt approaching poverty. Also he has sold many priceless family relics to aid the family exchequer. But at present the financial outlook for Puyi looks extremely dark.

WASHINGTON HOPES NOW TO CURB LIQUOR

It Is Feared That Anglo-American
Treaty Will Make It Difficult, to Evade Customs

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—There is every prospect here that the agreement to curb rum-running was worked out in London on the basis of suggestions made by Secretary Hughes will meet with the approval of the Washington government, and that agreements will be made later with the other maritime powers.

As a result of the Anglo-American treaty and others of a similar character which the administration hopes to have ready for Senate approval at the coming session of Congress, "rum row" along the Atlantic Coast is believed certain to disappear or at least to be pushed back to a distance that will make communication with shore very difficult.

PROTEST SUSTAINED AGAINST FIGURES

Portland Had Difficulty in Keeping
Street Open to Traffic While Inspection Made

PORTLAND, Oct. 31.—When public protest was made through the newspapers to a group of uncollected female figures in bas relief installed on the facade of a new building in Alder Street official action followed with a promptitude seldom exceeded here.

Mayor George L. Baker, and all the city commissioners dropped whatever they were doing and proceeded in a body to inspect the cause of the protest.

After the inspection and an interval for deliberation, the city fathers' verdict was that it was indeed highly improper. The figures must come down.

Just how their verdict was to be enforced they left to the city attorney as nobody could find an ordinance that seemed to meet the offence alleged.

Alder Street, in the neighborhood of the building bearing the figures is always populous, but today extra traffic officers were stationed there to handle the crowds and particularly to try to keep them moving.

A LAMENT, FROM ALCEIDES
(Euripides)
Ye wrench my wounds asunder.
Where
Is grief like mine whose wife is dead?
My wife, whom would I ne'er had wed.
Nor loved, nor held my house with her.

Blessed are they who dare to dwell
Unloved of woman! 'Tis but one
Heart that they bleed with, and Alone
Can bear their one life's burden well.

No young shall wither at their side,
No bridal room be swept by death.
Aye, better than should draw his breath
Forever without child or bride.

The garb of tears, the mourner's cry:
Then the long ache when tears are past!

Most of the table knives of today are made with hollow handles.

FRENCH REVIEW OF RHINELAND MOVE

Progress of Separatist Movement
Analysed by Press of France—
Feeling Against Prussia

The French press gives an interesting review about the separatist movement in the Rhineland as follows:

The three separatist parties of the Rhineland: Matthes, Dorten, Suets, have decided to merge and to conduct together the fight for the independence of the Rhineland. The separatist Matthes, who belongs to the "social democratic" and proved himself a true German patriot, recently sent to the French newspaper, Reichsblatt, a letter-programme which Mr. Emile Bure published. In it he declares that the Reich wants to keep the arsenal of the Ruhr to prepare for the war of revenge, and to make the Rhineland a centre of concentration for Prussia-Germany.

"Prussia," says he, "has but one aim today: to free herself from the obligations of the Treaty of Versailles, in order to re-establish afterwards her hegemony and her political dictatorship. This is why she has decreed the war of the Ruhr under the form of passive resistance. She also hopes to differ or avoid the hard periods of the Ruhr by means of the Ruhr plan, in order to put this plan into operation. Prussia needs the Rhineland. Without the Rhine and the Ruhr, there is no possibility of her economic, political and military expansion. Hence, all the actions of the Stresemann-Hilferding cabinet are dictated by the fear of losing us."

Mr. Matthes then attacks France against the mild and misleading speeches of chancellor Stresemann, a clever politician whose foresight is remarkably keen. Mr. Matthes asks France to help the Rhineland to lose its Prussian characteristics, in order to put a check to the progress of the Prussian policy of expansion, and that is his programme of the "Free Rhineland."

"What we want," he says, "is an economical equilibrium, both abroad and in the interior; the former, the Rhineland to become a peaceable barrier between Prussia-Russia and the Western States, threatened by her. We are opposed to the policy of passive resistance, advocated by Prussia in accordance with her secret thoughts of revenge, which deceives no one; consequently we demand the expulsion of all the partisans of 'sabotage' of labor and of peace, who for eight months have lived at the expense of the inhabitants of the Rhineland. Those who do not work while with us, such as railroad workers and employees of the Post-Telegraph-Telephone, have no right to live in the Rhineland. What we want also, is to keep for ourselves the money obtained from our taxes and contributions. This money must be used for the actual needs of the Rhineland and to pay our share of the reparations. We are tired of seeing our personal resources dumped into the sieve of Berlin."

Matthes then suggests the erection of Rheno-Westphalia as a neutral and independent republic, whose constitution would model itself on that of Switzerland. The separatist movement is probably making very rapid progress, since it now holds the attention of the important Belgian Catholic party, which until now, only looked upon it with scorn.

Proof of this is found in the article that was devoted to the Rhineland problem by the former minister, Carton de Wiart (Telegraaf of Amsterdam, Libre Belgique, September 16). Mr. Carton de Wiart declares that when he came to an end, that the alien who believed that the Rhineland populations were going to throw themselves in their arms for national or historical reasons, tracing back to the Gauls, gave proof of a great "naïveté." He claims that the republic of Dr. Dorten and of General Mangin lived only the duration of an operative and, regarded in Rhineland, more honest than applause. Since that time the different separatist movements have not ceased to encounter serious opposition on the part of the majority of the inhabitants of the Rhineland. However, he admits that the present sufferings have supplied the separatists with new arguments. The "los von Berlin," he writes, is no longer a political password. It becomes more and more an economical and somewhat alimentary theme. He says: "Discouraged by the continuance and the increasing seriousness of a crisis of which they do not see the end, and understanding that England cannot by herself put a term to this crisis, and that France and Belgium maintain resolutely their policy of reparations, the inhabitants of the Rhineland are losing courage one after the other."

From this situation Mr. Carton de Wiart concludes that it is the obvious interest of the Reich to do its best to obtain an agreement on the question of reparations. According to him, only the settlement of the reparations "can restore the Rhineland question to a normal state." If the actual conditions do not last, he foresees the coming of a less painful and radical formula for the Reich than those of separation, formula that seems at any rate to have his preference. For example, the formation of a Rhineland "autonomous" even though it be part of the German Reich. This solution would meet with great sympathy with German political parties other than the "Social Democratic," and would facilitate relations with Switzerland, Belgium, the Luxembourg and the Netherlands.

This formula, which Mr. Carton de Wiart seems to consider as the only logical one, the only one which will triumph, when the Rhineland movement has passed the feverish period, through which it is passing, already seems too narrow to the groups which demand the independence of the Rhineland.

SEES NO REASON FOR PESSIMISM HERE

Mr. E. A. Pierce, of New York, and Mr. M. C. Pickard, of San Francisco, Think Outlook Bright

Mr. E. A. Pierce, of New York, and Mr. M. C. Pickard, of San Francisco, two of the partners of the firm of A. A. Housman & Co., of New York, who have established direct wire connections with the British-American Bond Corporation, Ltd., in Victoria and Vancouver, and have opened their own offices in Seattle, Portland and San Francisco, spent the week-end in Victoria and Vancouver, and were greatly impressed with the possibilities for the future of the Coast cities so much that they have decided to further extend their wire services to the Coast, where many other houses have lately been curtailing.

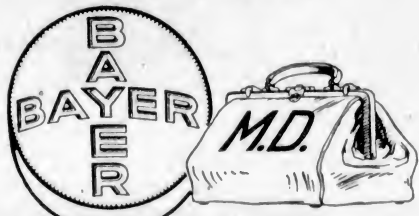

Mr. Pierce and Mr. Pickard were extremely surprised at the tone of pessimism prevailing where, to them, there were very bright prospects in store for British Columbia and almost knocking at the door by way of grain and dairy products from the Prairie Provinces.

Mr. Pierce expressed surprise also at the cheapness of great many commodities in Victoria and Vancouver, and was satisfied to believe that the tourist traffic should grow to immense proportions if the weather at this time of the year was such as it has been this last week.

LECTURE TO FARMERS BY PROFESSOR STRAIT

Superintendent of Experimental Farm
Addresses Metchosis Institute on Seed Growing

METCHOSIN, Oct. 29.—"There are three branches of agriculture," were the opening remarks of Professor Strait, of the Experimental Farm, at the Metchosis Hall this evening, "the Experimental Farm itself, the teaching side of agriculture, and the extension department."

Dealing principally with seed production, the professor emphasized the fact that there is a great difference between the production of flowers and seeds. Giving in detail the procedure of producing sweet pea seed, the speaker showed that the total cost of production amounts to $335.30 for 748 pounds of sweet pea seed, or 45 cents a pound.

Professor Strait does not advocate the use of acid in the production of sweet pea, but strongly urges the grower to use lime. In planting sweet peas, he also advises the distance between each seed to be twelve inches, finally advocating reaping and threshing as being more advantageous than hand picking at the harvesting.

The speaker then produced some fine grain, showing that the seed sown in the fall, notwithstanding the long winter months, is superior to that planted in the spring, giving preference to barley rather than wheat for hardiness.

Touching upon potatoes, the professor prophesied a great future for certified seed potatoes, going on to demonstrate the proper manner in which to increase the yield of the potato crop, the main factors being to get the highest yielding strain, to obliterate disease, and to the seed potato correctly prior to planting; furthermore explaining that it should be cut into two ounces, containing two eyes, and then should be dusted with sulphur.

"Stirring of the Soil"
Continuing, Professor Strait remarked that cultivation of the land has more to do with potato production than anything, emphatically advocating the "stirring of the soil" for the best yield of potatoes.

Some interesting slides were then thrown on the screen, the first series dealing with the evolution of the muskmelon as grown at Metchosis, and at the Experimental Farm, which concluded Professor Strait's address.

Many questions were asked by the interested audience, which was delighted with the instruction it received at this last business meeting of the Metchosis Farmers' Institute.

In moving a vote of thanks to Professor Strait, Mr. J. Stewart Yates touched on the fact that the directors of the Institute should be congratulated on their excellent work during the past few months in getting so many splendid speakers, paying great tribute to the excellence of Professor Strait's address. Seconded by Mr. H. G. Pierce, the vote was heartily endorsed.

PLANS TO EXTEND NANAIMO BUSINESS

D. Spencer, Ltd., Acquires Another Building—Inquest Held at Nanaimo—Child Injured

NANAIMO, Oct. 31.—A deal has been consummated whereby the D. Spencer, Ltd., have acquired the Grand Hotel, a two-story brick building adjoining their premises on Victoria Crescent, from Messrs. Quinn & Porter, it being the intention of Nanaimo's big departmental store to extend their business as soon as final arrangements for the same are completed. The purchase price of the property has not been made public, but it is understood the former owners secured a goodly sum for the property, which is certainly located and included among the best in that section of the city.

Mr. James Evans, who for several years conducted a meat market on Nicol Street, this city, left yesterday for Kamloops where he will engage in a similar business.

Coroner Hickling held an inquiry yesterday morning in connection with the death of Robert Dunn Hinkman, who died on Saturday last from injuries received while employed at the logging camp of the Superior Lumber Company, Nanaimo Bay. A verdict was returned by the jury to the effect that the accident was caused by loading hooks giving way from a log being hoisted, allowing the same to fall, pinning deceased between two logs. The jury also found that no blame was attached to anyone for the cause of the accident. They recommended that in future the hook apparatus of hoisting be replaced with the later method of using tongs.

William Harrison, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrison, Chase River, lies in the local hospital suffering from cuts about the head, a broken left arm, and several body bruises, the result of being struck by an automobile on Monday, driven by Mr. P. Christie, Eaton Street. Mr. Christie, in endeavoring to avoid collision with a group of children who were on the road, struck the little Harrison boy, who was somewhat to one side. Mr. Christie stopped the car, rendered every assistance possible, and the child was rushed to the Nanaimo hospital, where he is reported to be progressing favorably towards recovery.

RESPECTED LADY DIES AT CHEMANUS

Passing of Mrs. F. Lloyd Is Lamented by Many Friends—Deceases Number of Relatives

CHEMANUS, Oct. 30.—The sudden death of Mrs. F. Lloyd, of Mount Llewellyn, last Thursday evening, was a great shock to her many friends. Although not having enjoyed very good health for a long time, she was about until a hour or two of her death. Of a retiring disposition, but generous and hospitable, she will be greatly missed by her many friends. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, interment was in All Saints' Churchyard, Chemainus River. She leaves to mourn her loss five sons and two daughters, Messrs. Leo, Frank, Algy, Athol and Cecil, Mrs. R. L. Gibbs, and a daughter, in England, and a number of grandchildren.

A very jolly get-together supper and social was held at the Calvary Baptist Church last Friday evening. Suppers commenced at 6 o'clock and continued until 7:30. About 150 persons attended. After supper a delightful community sing took place. The evening lay, Rev. R. E. Cook announced the proceeds of the silver collection, $55, which was to go towards defraying the expense of the improvement to the basement of the church.

ST. MARY'S, METCHOSIN

METCHOSIN, Oct. 30.—On Sunday, November 4, services will be held at St. Mary's Church, Metchosis, at 11 o'clock, followed by the celebration of holy communion and evening song at 7:30.

A special effort is being made by the district to attend these services as it is the third anniversary of the death of Rev. M. P. Connelley, at the vicarage of Metchosis, William Head, Rocky Point, Sooke and Albert Head.

During the three years that the vicar and his wife have resided in the district they have done much to endear themselves to the hearts of their parishioners, who hold them both in high esteem.

Not only does Mr. Connelley look after the spiritual affairs of his flock, but enters into the sporting and social element as well, joining whomever is invited in tennis and cricket, and so cementing the friendship and regard which is felt for him by his people. Much time is spent by the vicar and Mrs. Connelley in visiting their parishioners, this being a big item, the parish being so large and spread over so large a tract of country; no bad weather, either rain, hail or snow, or bad road conditions deter them from their purpose of helping others, whether in sickness or health, sorrow or happiness.

It is then, with heartfelt sincerity, that the residents of the parishes of Rev. and Mrs. Connelley wish them both "many happy returns."

ROYAL OAK

ROYAL OAK, Oct. 31.—A large attendance and keen competition for the prizes given marked the second of a series of card parties being held this winter under the auspices of the Royal Oak Women's Institute for members and friends. The affair, which was convened by Mrs. Raven and took place at her residence, East Road, Elk Lake, on Tuesday evening, was most successful.

Royal Oak Women's Institute will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 7, at 2 o'clock in the institute rooms at Royal Oak. The meeting is being held a week earlier than usual to allow members an opportunity to take part in the Potato Fair the following week. Several items of business will be discussed, and Mrs. Norris will address the meeting on publicly work as connected with the institute.

STRAWBERRY VALE

The Strawberry Vale Women's Institute will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, November 6, at 2 o'clock, in its rooms on Roy Avenue, Colquitz. An interesting agenda of business matters is to be considered and a large attendance is requested.

COUNTESS IS LETTING HER OPPONENTS TALK

The Socialist Candidate Is Not Taking Any Public Part in Campaign During Week

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A curious feature of the by-election in the Warwick and Leamington division of Warwickshire, where Countess Warwick is the Socialist candidate, is that while both the Liberal and Conservative candidates are working hard, the countess herself has not appeared in public, the constituency this week. Her supporters, however, are busy.

"It is a practical demonstration of the profound democracy of the Socialist ideal of letting the other fellow do the work," unkind critics remark.

CANADIAN DOLLAR IMPROVES IN VALUE

Order of Railway Board Regarding Exchange on International Business Is Very Gratifying

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—A distinct improvement in the standing of the Canadian dollar was reflected today in the order of the Board of Railway Commissioners regarding exchange on international freight and passenger business for the next fortnight. There is an improvement of 5-16 per cent in the exchange rate on freight and of 1 per cent in the exchange on passenger business.

The exchange in connection with freight shipments for the next two weeks will be 1-16 per cent, as compared with 1-8 per cent for the two weeks just closed. While the exchange rate on passenger business will be passed on 1 per cent, instead of 2 per cent exchange, the surcharge on freight business remains at 1 per cent.

AGITATION OVER CATTLE DISEASE

British Livestock Owners at Loss to Account for Outbreak of Foot and Mouth Trouble

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The British livestock owners are agitated over the frequent and mysterious outbreaks of the foot and mouth disease of which there have been no fewer than 160 in Great Britain since the end of August, resulting in the compulsory slaughter of 4,750 cattle, 6,259 sheep and 3,367 hogs. For these the Government has been obliged to pay nearly £150,000 in compensation. As the outbreaks have been far apart, infection therefore being seemingly precluded, the suggestion is made that the disease is spread internally, and the breeders are endeavoring to get the ministry of agriculture to inquire into the matter.

OTTAWA REDEEMING 1918 VICTORY BONDS

Holders Expected Today to Draw More Than One Hundred and Nineteen Million Dollars

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The Department of Finance tomorrow will pay more than $119,000,000 to holders of 1918 Victory bonds who did not convert their holdings. Bonds maturing tomorrow total $117,000,000. Despite the success of the recent issue of Dominion Government bonds only from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 worth of the 1918 issue was converted. This left a balance of approximately $115,000,000, to which about $4,500,000 interest must be added.

Cod-liver oil is rich in vitamins

"I Avoided an Operation Appendicitis Disappeared"

Mrs. James Wells, Udon, Ont., writes:—

"I took a severe pain in my right side. It was very bad at times. I tried oils and tablets without gaining any relief. The doctor pronounced it chronic appendicitis. I dreaded an operation and a friend advised Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I used them and not only obtained relief from pain, but I believe it has completely freed me of appendicitis, as it is now over a year since I have had any of the old symptoms."

Seek More in motor oil than simply perfection as a lubricating film

In Aristo Motor Oil there is every lubricating quality that the best oil can possess. A staff of chemical experts produce it, backed by "Union Oil" facilities permitting of the most exhaustive research and conclusive tests. A durable, fine film results, penetrating to and protecting the motor's every moving part. Every drop is as near to perfection as a lubricating film as modern science can make motor oil. But there is more to look for in your oil.

Two "Carbons" —one is Flinty, Hard

All motor oils, as all oil makers know, deposit some carbonaceous residue. One kind is gritty, flinty, hard—hard enough to score cylinders and scratch rings, pistons, valves and bearings. It has a tendency to cling. It acts as an abrasive, causing wear. It becomes incandescent, pre-ignition following. It coats spark plugs, short-circuiting the spark. Lost compression results from its accumulation around valve heads and seats.

The Other Kind

The residue from Aristo Oil is fluffy, soft. Because of its non-clinging tendency, most of it blows out with the exhaust. It is softer than the metal it touches, so can't cause wear. It is deposited in smaller quantities than the other kind. Cars run thousands of miles farther without pre-ignition, short-circuiting, or loss of power through impaired compression. Hence four motor troubles are eliminated by it in addition to its service as a perfect lubricant. There's a deal more satisfaction in such oil. For sale at all first-class garages and service stations.
